

Text for Meditation

Come quickly to help me, LORD!

*Let those who seek my life
be confused and put to shame.
Let those who desire my ruin
turn back in disgrace.*

*Let those who would ambush me
turn back in their shame.*

*But may all who seek you
rejoice and be glad in you,
Those who long for your help always say, “God be glorified!”*

I am miserable and poor.

*God, come to me quickly!
You are my help and deliverer.
Lord, do not delay!*

-Psalm 70

Points for Meditation

There aren't any rules to grief - remember you have a lot of people who can help keep you on the rails until your grief is integrated into the new normal.

Loss of a colleague doesn't mean an end to that relationship, but its transformation.

Your Chaplains are here to embrace you, to walk with you, and to suffer with you through whatever grief may bring.

O Judge of the nations, we remember before you with grateful hearts the men and women of our department who in the day of decision ventured much for the liberties we enjoy. Grant that we may not rest until all the people of this land share the benefits of true freedom and gladly accept its disciplines. This we ask in your name. Amen.
