

OCTOBER 5, 2025 (Cycle 1- Year C)

Faith is a gracious gift from God. It can neither be earned nor bought, only responded to with works of love and service. A vibrant faith can make us strong, loving, and wise, confident that God will guard us from all harm. God is the Rock of our salvation.

VOCATION CORNER

If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you." (Luke 17:6)

God can do great things with even the smallest acts of faith. If you feel a calling to priesthood or consecrated life, have faith that God will provide the strength to follow His will. Talk to your priest .

A PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults.

SECOND COLLECTION: Collection of Hope for the Future will be taken up NEXT WEEKEND. October 11th & 12th . THE MONTH OF THE ROSARY: October is the month of the rosary. With Mary, we are invited to meditate on the mysteries of our salvation. We are a part of these mysteries, and they give meaning to our lives. The Joyful Mysteries remind us that God shared in family life. And is present in our homes. The Sorrowful Mysteries remind us that Jesus and Mary understand our suffering. The Glorious and Luminous Mysteries bring hope to our pilgrimage of faith, which will reach its completion when we are home, body and soul, with all our live ones in heaven. Mary is our model of faith, and she is with us in prayer.

WE HONOR THE CREATOR: Christ Himself calls us to solidarity with the poor, with the vulnerable, and with all creation, which suffers under the weight of exploitation and neglect. The “world” includes not only humanity but the whole of creation, which groans for redemption. If we wish to walk in its light, our discipleship must be expressed in daily habits that care for both our neighbor and our common home. We are invited to live simply, resisting the culture of waste. Before buying, we might ask: “Do I truly need this?” We can honor the Creator by reducing waste, recycling, reusing, and giving thanks for the gifts of food and water. In caring for water, conserving energy, planting a small garden, and avoiding the unnecessary use of resources, we embody the humility of Christ who emptied himself for us. From the cross springs forth resurrection, life, justice, and reconciliation. So let us take up our cross daily, not only by bearing life’s burdens with faith, but also by choosing small, faithful actions that heal the earth and serve the poor. In this way, we join Christ in sowing seeds of peace and hope until creation itself is renewed.
