

JUNE 15, 2025 (Cycle 1- Year C)

We are at peace with God our Father through our Lord Jesus Christ. God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit. This Spirit, who is Wisdom itself, will lead us into all truth.

How wonderful the name of our God in all the earth!

VOCATION CORNER

"Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that He will take from what is mine and declare it to you." (John 16:15)

The unity of the Holy Trinity invites us to participate in God’s life and love. How is God calling you to embody this unity through a vocation? Perhaps He is leading you toward the sacred union of holy matrimony.

A PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

We ask You to strengthen us as we follow the vocation to which You have called us. We pray particularly for those called to serve as priests, sisters, brothers and deacons: Those whom You have called, Those You are calling now, Those You will call in the future. May they be open and responsive to the call of serving Your people.

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

The Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us that the Trinity is the central mystery of the Christian faith. "It is the mystery of God in himself." (no. 234) God has revealed himself to us as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. He is three persons in one God. The Church's teaching focuses on the following:

The Trinity is One — "We do not confess three Gods, but one God in three persons ... The divine persons do not share the one divinity among themselves but each of them is God whole and entire ..." (no. 253)

The Three Persons of the Trinity are Distinct from One Another — "It is the Father who generates, the Son who is begotten, and the Holy Spirit who proceeds." (no. 254)

The Three Persons of the Trinity are Relative to Each Other — "Because it does not divide the divine unity, the real distinction of the persons from one another resides solely in the relationships which relate them to one another ..." (no. 255)

They could voice their opinions or concerns, speak and act a unit on all matters of our parish interests. Promoting spiritual and social activities for the women of the parish was essential. By-laws were adopted and have been closely followed through the years.
