NOVEMBER 8, 2026 (Cycle 11- Year A)

We seek many things in this life, but we should seek first the Lord and his wisdom. By so living, we will keep vigil for the Lord as we await his return in glory.

VOCATION MINISTRY

"Keep watch, because you do not know the day or the hour." (Matthew 25:13) Jesus calls us to be ready, attentive, and faithful to His invitation. Priesthood and consecrated life ask for hearts that remain vigilant, prepared to serve God and His people with generosity and love. Pray for guidance and clarity in discerning how He may be calling you to serve. Talk to your priest.

ALL SOULS REMEMBRANCE

Masses will be offered for all souls requested through ALL SOULS DAY ENVELOPES TODAY.
Cemetery Mass will be TODAY Sunday, November 8, 2026 at 4pm.
We will have Mass at the cemetery if WEATHER PERMITTING, IF NOT THEN IN CHURCH.
We gather to commemorate and honor all those faithful souls who lived before us and now have eternal life in heaven. The Saints in heaven set an example for us as how we are to live. Now they can intercede on our behalf. May the merits of their prayers, and our following of their example, bring us to share perfect joy with them in heaven. Let us rejoice in all the men and women, blest in the eyes of the Lord, who celebrate the heavenly liturgy. They stand in God's holy place and sing of the love the Father has bestowed upon them through the blood of the Lamb.

SECOND COLLECTION

(November 14th & 15th) our special collection will support the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. Please be generous in this special collection. In the United States, more than 11% of the population lives in poverty.

Gustavo will also accept your nomination of a deserving married couple when you believe the circumstances warrant it.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

November 8th - Melissa Morawietz; November 9th - Preston Pawelek & Lynda Jaskinia; November 13th - Alison Moczygemba Leal; November 14th - Kevin Morawietz.

WITH DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME HAVING GONE and shifted the timing of our days, the presence of darkness is much more apparent. It can be a time to live into the opportunities for light amid the darkness. I often put up a few strings of lights around the house, pull out a few more candles, and take notice of the things that sustain me in this season full of longer, darker nights. It may be dark, but it is also a time to slow down and take my time. It's a time to see things in a difference light. What will keep our lamps filled in this season? The light may be less and the darkness may be tangible in this part of the world, but God will still move within the darkness and come to us. What we fill out lamps with can shape how we live in the darkness and what it is we can see. What is nourishing and sustaining our attentiveness toward those movements of God that may be more difficult to see, no matter how bright it can be in the day? Perhaps it is something in our communities, in the quiet, in a step back or a step forward. What do we need to build fires within that help keep our attention on how the Holy Spirit is speaking to and through us?-ERN
