

OCTOBER 25, 2026 (Cycle 11- Year A)

We are to love the Lord with our whole heart and our neighbor as ourselves. By thus fulfilling these two great commandments, we hope to become models of faith and imitators of the Lord who gave himself totally for or sakes.

VOCATION MINISTRY: ""You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart... and your neighbor as yourself." (Matthew 22:37-39)

Every vocation is rooted in this twofold commandment of love. Priesthood, consecrated life, and sacramental marriage call us to give ourselves fully to God while serving others with compassion and selflessness. How is God inviting you to live out this love in a vocation that blesses both Him and those around you? Talk to your priest.

CALLED BY NAME: Do you know a young man or woman who may have a vocation to the priesthood or religious life?

From October 10 through November 8, participate in Called by Name by encouraging them to explore God's call and connecting them with the Vocation Office. Think of a young adult who may have the qualities to serve as a priest or religious sister and encourage them to consider God's call. A simple conversation can help foster a culture of vocations and open the door to discernment. To learn more visit SAVOCATION.ORG

CCD NEWS : November 4th at 6PM at our cemetery we are having an all Souls Prayer Service and will be lead by our CCD students.

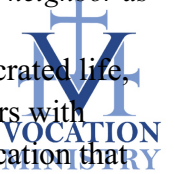

IT WAS A GREAT DAY TO BE IN CESTOWA: Thank You, Parish Family-from the Cestohowa Altar Society and the Cestohowa Men's Club.

The Annual Turkey Dinner was a huge success — and it's all thanks to you! Our parish sure knows how to make a delicious meal. It is surprising we all didn't take a nap halfway through the day!

What a joy to see everyone come together — cooking, serving, cleaning, and sharing in the fun. Between the bingo games, washer tournament, and raffles, there was never a dull moment! It's truly heartwarming to watch how our parish works side by side to make this wonderful event happen. This isn't just a fundraiser — it's one of our parish's biggest social events and a cherished tradition.

Thank you again for your time, energy, and joyful spirit. We couldn't have done it without.
PLEASE TURN IN TURKEY SOCIAL EXPENSES TO THE RECTORY as soon as possible, so a complete report can be provided. Again, Thank you very much!

ALL SOULS REMEMBRANCE : ALL SOULS ENVELOPES: Envelopes can be found in all bulletin holders. Please return the envelop to Father before November 4th . Or put it in the collection basket Sunday November 1st .

Masses will be offered for all souls requested through ALL SOULS DAY ENVELOPES ON Monday, November 2nd at 9AM in church. Cemetery Mass will be Sunday, November 8th at 4pm. We will have Mass at the cemetery if weather permitting, if not then in church.

We gather to commemorate and honor all those faithful souls who lived before us and now have eternal life in heaven. The Saints in heaven set an example for us of how we are to live. Now they can intercede on our behalf. May the merits of their prayers, and our following of their example, bring us to share perfect joy with them in heaven.

THE WHOLE LAW AND THE PROPHETS depend on these two commandments (Mt 22:40). Everything depends on love. Without it, our rules, our rituals, our ways, our leaders, our heroes mean nothing. It’s simple yet radical: to see all that we do as ultimately an act of love toward God and toward one another.

Do we see ourselves as the loved or the loving? The first two readings have a “we have all been there” theme to them. They remind even the most privileged among us that it is only our privilege that protects us from being the stranger or the neighbor—that any one of us can quickly become the person in need of compassion, mercy, and welcome. Because without those signs of love—the compassion, the mercy, the welcome—the rest of it doesn’t matter. Privilege and security are not love. They keep us from seeing ourselves as the stranger and neighbor and from opening ourselves to radical love. They give the illusion that we are loved, but as we are reminded, all that we do and all that we rely on are nothing without love.
