

JUNE 8, 2025 (Cycle 1- Year C)

All of us have been baptized into one and the same Spirit, and live by that same Spirit. That same Spirit, the Advocate, was given as gift to the disciples to remind them of all that Jesus said and did, and to strengthen them to go forth in the name of the Lord, “to renew the face of the earth”

VOCATION CORNER

"Receive the Holy Spirit." (John 20:22)

As the Holy Spirit filled the disciples with power, so too can He fill you with the strength to answer a vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life. Be open to His prompting. . Talk to your priest .

A PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

We ask You to strengthen us as we follow the vocation to which You have called us. We pray particularly for those called to serve as priests, sisters, brothers and deacons: Those whom You have called, Those You are calling now, Those You will call in the future. May they be open and responsive to the call of serving Your people.

HOLY TRINITY

Everyday in the year, Sunday especially, is consecrated to the Most Holy Trinity. Nevertheless, the Church, wishing to bless and praise the three Divine Persons of the Blessing Trinity of the mercy shown to mankind, has willed to dedicate a particular feast in honor of the Most Holy Trinity. This mystery is the fundamental dogma of our Faith, and it is beyond full human understanding; however, we must believe in it firmly as a truth revealed by Jesus and taught by the church.

FOCUS: Trinitarian love simply demonstrates the endless possibility and expression of and for love in the Godhead. Indeed God loves because love and God are one. Not content to stay trapped in “majesty and cloud,” the transcendent becomes immanent. As our flesh, God enables us to share in divine life and by so doing demonstrates his profound capacity for love. Those who follow God can participate in the same kind of loving and life-giving experience.
