

OCTOBER 12, 2025 (Cycle 1- Year C)

*The Lord has revealed his saving power to all the nations! Naaman, a Syrian, is healed, and lepers are made whole, but only the Samaritan returns to give thanks.
Let us remain steadfast in faith, and thankful for the Lord's blessings.*

VOCATION CORNER

"And one of them, realizing he had been healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice;"

(Luke 17:15) Just as the healed man returned to glorify God, deacons are called to bring Christ's healing love to others through their dedicated service to the Church. Today, let us show our gratitude for the deacons that serve our Church. If you are called to the diaconate, consider how you can bring Christ's healing love to others through service. Talk to your priest.

A PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults.

TURKEY SOCIAL(October 19, 2025): NEXT SUNDAY:

The annual Cestohowa Turkey Dinner is a long-standing tradition and truly a community event. It draws our community together by providing the Cestohowa Men's Club a venue to hold their annual hunter's raffle and washer tournament. The Men's Club regularly donates to many community organizations as well as to our church. Yes, it is true that an event like this is a lot of work, but anything worth doing involves a lot of work. Please help wherever you can. Invite your family and friends-they won't be disappointed. Remind your children of their responsibility to work where assigned. Please help before, during and after wherever you can. As they say, "It takes a village" and we have the best. Thank You!!
