

OCTOBER 19, 2025 (Cycle 1- Year C)

Through incessant prayer, we open ourselves more fully to understanding God's will. Through faith in the power of prayer, we experience God's love and assistance. Our Christian life is nourished by the scriptures we read and by our received tradition.

Priests and religious brothers and sisters help to keep faith alive in the world. Could God be calling you to be one of these dedicated servants? Talk to your priest

A PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults.

CALLED BY NAME

This weekend, we launch CALLED BY NAME, a program to encourage vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Let us unite in prayer for an increase in vocations, and for God to call those He is calling to serve. Do you know a man or woman (18 years old or older) who you believe has the potential to become a priest, sister, or brother? Please recommend them by completing a response card, which can be found in the pews. Next weekend, place your completed card in the collection basket. More information: SAVocations.org/Called-by-Name.

SECOND COLLECTION: World Mission Sunday - TODAY, October 18th & 19th .Today, every parish across the globe joins together for the only worldwide collection mandated by Canon Law—World Mission Sunday. Your generosity today supports the Pope's missions in more than 1,124 territories where the Church is young or struggling. This year's theme—"Missionaries of Hope Among the Peoples"—is a call to embody the love of God, poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit (cf. Rom 5:5). Your offering today provides hope where despair too often dominates—through the building of churches, formation of seminarians and religious sisters, healthcare clinics, and Catholic schools.

TODAY Sunday, October 19th, join us in our Annual Cestohowa Turkey Dinner starting at 10:30am.
