About the Who's Who In Cabarrus-Rowan Magazine

The Who's Who in Cabarrus-Rowan Magazine publication is an opportunity for us to afford a measure of recognition to the African-American men and women who have made their mark in their specific occupations, professions, or in service to others in their community. A sincere effort is made to include those whose positions or accomplishments in their chosen fields are significant and those whose contributions to community affairs whether city-wide or on the neighborhood level have improved the quality of life for all of us.

Profiles for the 25 selected nominees will be presented in the Who's Who In Cabarrus-Rowan Magazine. A completed Profile is required (a sample information is included below).

Profile*

IDEAS FOR CREATING A PROFILE (BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH) LIMIT 250 WORDS OR LESS: Every biographical entry must include name, title, and company or organization. Include work related responsibilities in the first paragraph. List any honors and special achievements. List organization memberships/affiliations (i.e., sororities /fraternities, volunteer endeavors, church, etc.) Include educational background if applicable (i.e., school and degree(s) earned). Include personal data (hobbies, children/ spouse information, favorite quote, etc.) - FYI: Continuation of the Profile on a separate sheet is permitted.

Sample Profile

Angela Pace
Director of Community Affairs
WBNS-10TV

Angela Pace, the Director of Community Affairs at WBNS-10TV, is a lifelong resident of Central Ohio. With 13 years as an anchor at 10TV and 14 years of reporting and anchoring at WC-MH-TV, Angela has made a significant impact on local journalism. Her commitment extends beyond the screen, as she has served on various boards, including Capital University Trustees, Nationwide Children's Hospital Foundation, Mid-Ohio FoodBank, and Lincoln Theatre Association. Angela's accolades include the YWCA Woman of Achievement Award, Governor's Award for Journalism and Community Service, Capital University Outstanding Alumni Award, Columbus City Schools Alumni Award, NATAS Ohio Valley Silver Circle, three Emmys, and a regional Telly. The Columbus Bar Association even established a foundation in her honor, contributing to the Center for Child and Family Advocacy at Nationwide Children's Hospital. Recognized as one of the Top 50 Icons in Columbus in 2012, Angela's image graces the Long Street Cultural Wall of Fame.
