

Democrat Emily Scott is running to represent us in the Virginia Senate. Emily supports a decent working wage, safe and uncongested roads, gun safety laws, and the right to choose. You can learn more about Emily at <https://scottforstatesenate.org>

Democrat Steve Foreman is running to represent us in the Virginia House of Delegates. He'll work for environmental reforms, reproductive health freedom, better schools, and safer gun laws. You can learn more about Steve at <https://www.foremanforvirginia.com>

Independent Gary Oates is running for Chair of the Frederick County Board of Supervisors. His goal is a return to civility and normalcy where the various departments and Board of Supervisors work together with respect and share a common goal of providing the best services to citizens. His opponent is Republican Josh Ludwig. You can learn more about Gary at <https://www.frederick-first.com/candidates.html>

Independent Bob Wells is running to represent us on the Board of Supervisors. Bob champions public schools, emergency services, parks and recreation, and sane tax rates. He's a common-sense problem solver, not an extremist. His opponent is Republican Robin Cooke. You can learn more about Bob at <https://www.frederick-first.com/candidates.html>

Independent Kirk Whittle is running for the Clerk of the Court. He has been in the clerk's office since 2006 and is running on his experience and understanding of the office and related agencies. His opponent is Republican Sarah Kahle. You can learn more about Kirk at <https://www.frederick-first.com/candidates.html>

Independent Seth Thatcher is running for Commissioner of the Revenue. He is running as an Independent because he believes that constitutional officers should not be elected based upon party affiliation as those offices are non-political and require experience. His opponent is Republican Tanya Sibert. You can learn more about Seth at <https://www.frederick-first.com/candidates.html>

Independent Lenny Millholland is running for Sheriff. He is the current sheriff and believes in giving back to his community. He is running unopposed. You can learn more about Lenny at <https://www.frederick-first.com/candidates.html>

Daryl Bell is running to represent us on the Frederick County School Board. He is a Civic teacher with children in our public schools. He understands the need for a fourth high school and new elementary schools. His opponent is Delane Karalow who supports giving tax dollars to private schools. You can learn more about Daryl on his Facebook page.

Brian Hester is running for the at-large seat on the Frederick County School Board. Brian's children attend our public schools. He understands the need for a fourth high school and new elementary schools. He donates his salary to the school system. His opponents are Diane Klein and Christopher Davey, who both support giving tax dollars to private schools and whose children do not attend our public schools. You can learn more about Brian on his Facebook page.