We are based in Liverpool, England.

We make:

- Films
- Digital Videos for Schools, Charities other organisations
- Creative Projects like Comic Books and Music

We help people to learn, be creative, and tell their stories.

WHO STARTED VIPER PRODUCTIONS?

Karl Hughes started Viper Productions in 2019.

Karl is an award-winning actor with experience in a range of films and television shows.

He wanted to help more people get into acting and film, especially if they are disabled or need extra support.

WHAT WE DO

We do lots of creative work, including:

- Make films and documentaries
- Run fun and inclusive arts programmes (comic books, picture books, film projects)
- Offer acting lessons and courses (with certificates)
- Help young people with work experience
- Work with schools, charities, and SEND (Special Educational Needs and Disabilities) groups
- Run workshops in film, photography, make up and performing arts

WHO WE WORK WITH

We work with:

- SEND Schools and neurodivergent people
- Charities, CIC's and Community Groups
- Colleges and Universities
- Young people aged 11+ who want to work in film or media
- Local Communities across Liverpool and the North West

ACCESS TO INCLUSION

We want everyone to feel safe, welcome and included.

We offer:

- Friendly staff who understand different needs
- Support for neurodiverse and disabled people
- Calm and quiet spaces if you need them
- Easy-to-read information and visual tools
