JOURNEY PARTNER IS NOT...

1. NOT COUNSELING

A Journey Partner is not a professional counselor. The goal is to listen, encourage, pray, and point one another to Christ—not to solve every problem.

2. NOT BRAGGING

This is not a time to impress others with spiritual achievements. The goal is honesty, humility, and growth.

3. NOT JUDGING

Journey Partners are not there to criticize or condemn one another. They speak the truth in love and extend grace.

4. NOT GOSSIPING

Whatever is shared stays confidential. Trust is essential for accountability to work.

5. NOT CONTROLLING

A Journey Partner is not a spiritual police officer. Accountability is about encouragement, not control.

6. NOT A COMPLAINT SESSION

The purpose is not merely to talk about problems, but to seek God's help and grow through them.

JOURNEY PARTNER IS NOT...

7. NOT A ONE-WAY RELATIONSHIP

Both partners ask, listen, share, encourage, and pray. Accountability is mutual.

8. NOT PERFECTION

The goal is not to prove how spiritual we are. The goal is to become more like Christ one step at a time.

WHY DO WE NEED JOURNEY PARTNERS?

Connect Group

WHY DO WE NEED JOURNEY PARTNERS?

A. TO PREVENT SPIRITUAL ISOLATION

- Many believers struggle because nobody is checking on them.

B. TO ENCOURAGE SPIRITUAL DISCIPLINE

Partners help one another remain faithful in:

- Prayer
- Bible reading
- Church attendance
- Ministry involvement

WHY DO WE NEED JOURNEY PARTNERS?

C. TO PROVIDE ENCOURAGEMENT DURING DIFFICULT TIMES

- Everyone needs someone who will pray, listen, and support them.

D. TO FOSTER SPIRITUAL GROWTH

- Growth happens faster when someone helps us apply God's Word consistently.

Remember, ang goal natin ay hindi perfection kundi progression. We're not here to judge one another but to help one another become more like Christ. Spiritual growth happens when believers walk together, pray together, and encourage one another toward obedience.
