

ANGELS:

THE BIBLE'S DOCTRINE OF ANGELS

What's the Difference Between Angels and the Holy Spirit?

What's the Difference Between Angels and the Holy Spirit?

1) Angels are created beings; the Holy Spirit is God.

- Angels were created by God (Colossians 1:16)
- The Holy Spirit is not created—He is the third Person of the Trinity (Acts 5:3–4, Matthew 28:19)

What's the Difference Between Angels and the Holy Spirit?

2) Angels serve outside of us; the Holy Spirit dwells within us.

- Angels can be sent to protect, guide, or minister (Psalm 91:11, Hebrews 1:14).
- But the Holy Spirit lives in every believer's heart (1 Corinthians 6:19).

What's the Difference Between Angels and the Holy Spirit?

3) Angels point us to God; the Holy Spirit unites us with God.

- Angels always give glory to God, not to themselves (Revelation 19:10).
- The Holy Spirit goes deeper—He doesn't just point, He connects (Ephesians 1:13-14, Romans 8:16)

Do Angels Help God?

So why does He send angels?

So why does He send angels?

1. To carry out His will – They are His messengers and agents (Hebrews 1:14).
2. To display His order and glory – God chooses to use angels to show His majesty in creation (Job 38:7).
3. To serve believers – Angels minister to those who will inherit salvation (Hebrews 1:14).

Don't over-depend on angels, depend on God.

Angels remind us of God's power and care, but the Holy Spirit reminds us of God's presence in us.
