SOME SUPPLIERS

At the April Maxi Day, some members were interested in the 'different' pen and other kits on display (eg knife keyring); asking where they'd been bought from. For your information, here are two such suppliers and the respective discount codes available to Cubby House Members.

a small family owned / operated business in Brisbane.

Justin Williams. Ph: 0473 873 521 Email: info@williamspensandturningsupplies.com

When buying from the website, at the payment page ('checkout') enter the discount code OYSTER to receive a 10% discount. Any trouble, phone Justin and he'll see you right. Justin also provides free postage on all orders over $100.

www.timberbits.com

based in Mona Vale, providing for woodturners and woodworkers alike.

Phone: 1800 388 833

Email: accounts@timberbits.com

When buying from the website, if you're a first time user, at 'checkout' find the 'Discount Code' box at the bottom of the page and type WELCOME10 to receive 10% off. For your next purchase, contact Timberbits and provide your membership details to them (copy of the paid Invoice from our Treasurer at annual fee time) and they'll register you as a Club Member in their system; which automatically deducts 5% every purchase (you don't need to enter codes etc). You'll see you're receiving it when 'MEMBER5' shows on their Invoice.

Of course, there are dozens of suppliers with ranging stock ... here are a few more:

The Hobbyist Timber Supply Store

Unit 4 - 11/19 Ruddock Street

For those that don't know, The Hobbyist Timber Supply Store (AKA Corrimal Hobby Timber) was established 4 years ago. They are a spin-off of a joinery business, repurposing the furniture grade off-cuts into woodturning blanks (eg: pens, spindle, grinder and bowls) and boards / slabs for woodworking (eg: grain matched packs for box making). There are many unique timbers available and most of their timber comes from urban salvage. For any enquiries on woodturning timbers, contact Bob on 0409 991 917.
