

PRIVACY NOTICE

The Parochial Church Council (PCC) of St Martin's Church, Dorking

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data and any other information we hold or are likely to hold in future. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

The PCC of St Martin's Church, Dorking (a registered charity) is the data controller (contact details below) and also covers its daughter church of St Mary's Pixham. This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The PCC of St Martin's Church, Dorking complies with its obligations under the "GDPR" by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to provide a voluntary service including pastoral care for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area as specified in our constitution;
- To administer membership records including preparation and publishing the Electoral Roll;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the charity;
- To manage our employees and volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records;
- To inform you of news, events, activities and services running at any of the churches in the United Benefice which includes St Martin's or at the Dorking Christian Centre;
- To inform you of news in the diocese and events, activities and services that will be occurring in the diocese or other local churches and in which you may be interested.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Processing is necessary for carrying out obligations under employment, contract, Gift Aid, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement;
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided: -
 - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
 - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.
- Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities and services and process your gift aid donations and keep you informed about diocesan events;

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with:-

- other members of the churches forming the United Benefice which includes St Martin's and
- with member of the Methodist Church in Dorking (which has shared building agreements with the PCC of St Martin's Dorking) in order to carry out a service to other church members or for purposes connected with the church. We will only share your data with third parties outside of the parish with your consent.

6. How long do we keep your personal data¹?

We keep data in accordance with the guidance set out in the guide "Keep or Bin: Care of Your Parish Records" which is available from the Church of England website [see footnote for link].

Specifically, we retain electoral roll data while it is still current; gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to 6 years after the calendar year to which they relate; and parish registers (including baptisms, marriages and funerals) permanently.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which the PCC of St Martin's, Dorking holds about you;
- The right to request that the PCC of St Martin's, Dorking corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the PCC of St Martin's, Dorking to retain such data;
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time;
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

8. Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Privacy Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.
