Collect Prayer

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that with you as our ruler and guide we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not our hold on things eternal; grant this, heavenly Father, for our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Old Testament Reading

Jeremiah 28. 5 - 9 OT Pg: 758

Then the prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the Lord; and the prophet Jeremiah said, 'Amen! May the Lord do so; may the Lord fulfil the words that you have prophesied, and bring back to this place from Babylon the vessels of the house of the Lord, and all the exiles. But listen now to this word that I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people. The prophets who preceded you and me from ancient times prophesied war, famine, and pestilence against many countries and great kingdoms. As for the prophet who prophesies peace, when the word of that prophet comes true, then it will be known that the Lord has truly sent the prophet.'

New Testament Reading

Romans 6. 12 - 23 NT Pg: 166

Therefore, do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God that you, having once been slaves of sin, have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted, and that you, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification.

When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. So what advantage did you then get from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the advantage you get is sanctification. The end is eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 10. 40 - 42 NT Pg: 11

'Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple - truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward.'

Post Communion Prayer

Eternal God, comfort of the afflicted and healer of the broken, you have fed us at the table of life and hope: teach us the ways of gentleness and peace, that all the world may acknowledge the kingdom of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Events, News and Notices

Your July/August issue of the magazine is available at the back of church.

A Summer Serenade at St Barnabas Church on Sunday 5th July from 6pm. The Ripieno Choir present a short recital in church followed by an interlude of plainsong from Compline. Finally, outside into nature, from sacred to secular for English pastoral madrigals. You are invited to bring a picnic to enjoy with the choir as the evening lingers over the Surrey Hills. Admission is free, with a retiring collection. Space is limited so we recommend tickets are reserved in advance. Admission on the door will be subject to available space. Box office; 020 8399 2714, vox@ripienochoir.org.uk. See p24 of magazine.

With great regret, we have to announce the 2026 Cherry Fair at St Barnabas Church Ranmore will not take place. However, this applies to this year's Fair only; our Christmas Fair and the fairs in 2027 will take place as usual. We are immensely grateful for your help and support in the past and we look forward to seeing you at our fairs in the future. Robin and Steph, Churchwardens.

Dorking Area Foodbank. Requested donations of: washing-up liquid, chocolate bars, pasta sauce, Muesli/cereal bar boxes, tinned meat meals for 1 (one meat, one carb like spaghetti bolognese, sausage and beans, Fray Bentos meals etc.) and 2 pack toilet rolls.

Confirmation classes 2026: If you would like to be confirmed, or are interested in enquiring about confirmation preparation, please talk to Anthony as soon as possible

Coffee rota after church. Thank you so much for those who have offered to serve coffee after church. It would be very helpful if there could be two on each Sunday. We could do with a few more volunteers. If you are able to help there is a rota at the back of church. Please do keep the coffee going! Thank you to those who are bringing their own cups on Sundays. It is a great help! We are having to buy extra cups as our numbers grow - (how wonderful is that!). However it would be good if we became a congregation who brought their own cups!

Lunchtime Recital, Saturday 4th July. Kate Plummer and The Merry Band. An American theme.

Sung Eucharist at St Barnabas on Sunday 12th July at 11am, celebrating the sacred music of Benjamin Britten, 50 years after his death, sung by The Whyte Effect Choir.

St Martin's Book of Remembrance. If you have lost a loved one and would like to have their name inscribed in our Book of Remembrance in church, please call or email Vicki in the church office or pick up an application form in church, on the Remembrance Book display case, next to the Lady Chapel gate. Tel: 01306 884229 or churchoffice@stmartinsdorking.org

The next coffee morning will be Wednesday 1st July at 10.30 in Harts, 3 Old King's Head Court RH4 1AR. All welcome.

For more information on events, or for the "Who's Who" page, please see page 23 of the Parish Magazine.

God of Mission

Who alone brings growth to your Church,
Send your Holy Spirit to give vision to our planning,
wisdom to our actions,
and power to our witness.

Help our church to grow in numbers,
in spiritual commitment to you,
and in service to our local community,
Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
