

Old Testament Reading

Psalm 46

OT Pg: 547

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear, though the earth shakes and the mountains move in the heart of the sea; though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains quake before his majesty. There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy habitation of the Most High. God is in the midst of the city; it shall not be moved; God will help it when the morning dawns. The nations are in uproar, the kingdoms totter; he utters his voice, the earth melts. The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Come, behold the works of the Lord; the astounding deeds he has wrought on earth. He makes wars cease to the end of the earth; he breaks the bow, and shatters the spear; he burns the shields with fire. 'Be still and know that I am God! I am exalted among the nations, I am exalted in the earth'. The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

New Testament Reading

Colossians 1. 11-20

NT Pg: 214

Brothers and sisters: May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers – all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

Gospel Reading

Luke 23. 33-43

NT Pg: 95

When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. Then Jesus said, 'Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing.' And they cast lots to divide his clothing.

And the people stood by, watching; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, 'He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!' The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine, and saying, 'If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!' There was also an inscription over him, 'This is the King of the Jews.' One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, 'Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!' But the other rebuked him, saying, 'Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong.' Then he said, 'Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.' Jesus replied, 'Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise.'

Late Night Shopping Event - We thought it would be nice for the Church to be open during Dorking's evening festive shopping event (Gala Night) 6.00pm - 8.30pm. We therefore need a few helpers from 5.30pm onwards on Thursday 1st December to serve mulled wine and mince pies to our visitors, can you please let Vicki know at the church office if you can help. Everyone is welcome to come along for a glass of festive cheer and view our beautiful Christmas Tree and decorations!

Advent Course. Advent offers a wonderful opportunity to explore our faith more fully and to draw closer to the God who chose to draw close to us. I as Chaplain of the Dorking Christian Centre will be providing a short but hopefully meaningful time of Advent study and discussion on the four Thursday mornings of Advent. Meeting in the upper room of the Christian Centre on 1st, 8th, 15th and 22nd Dec, 11am to 11.50am to allow people to take lunch in the café should they wish to. There is a promise of tea, coffee and mince pies at the last of these. I hope you will consider coming and sharing in what should be positive times of finding strength from our faith. Rev David Pitkeathly.

Collect

Eternal Father, whose Son Jesus Christ ascended to the throne of heaven that he might rule over all things as Lord and King: keep the Church in the unity of the Spirit and in the bond of peace, and bring the whole created order to worship at his feet; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
