Dear Third Session Campers,

It's hard to believe that this session is over already. It seems like you all just arrived. I hope that you were able to learn a little more about your diabetes, to have fun at activities, to re-kindle friendships, and make new friends but most importantly to share thoughts and feelings about living with diabetes.

I hope you'll keep in touch with friends you've made and come back to camp again next year. One way that we all keep in touch is to light our campfire candles on Christmas Eve. Clara Barton was born on Christmas Day so the night before her birthday seems like a good time for all of us to take a few minutes to think about camp and the people we've met here. As you light your candle, other campers and staff will be doing the same thing. In the middle of a cold winter, it's a very warm thing to do.

Enjoy the rest of the summer. See you next year. Take good care of yourselves and your diabetes.

Love,
Joe

The session is over!!! We went wild this session. I loved walking with Div A for ice cream. Hey, Seniors you made it to the top of mt. Monadnock. I knew you could do it! Div C the movies were excellent. Next time all of us will go "Around the Corner." You did not embarrass me...? Div B your overnight with the Goshen men was wild.

The whole camp enjoyed the Dance with Goshen and all camp trip to the beach. You are "Sun goddess"! We have "no Talent" here at C.B.C. Dave???. Take care and have a great end of summer. Hope to see you next summer!! Love, Hope

A girl named

Lysa

Once upon a time there was a poor little girl and her parents, they barely had any food left they were very hungry, until one day the parents said the little girl, 'We want you to grow up healthy a strong girl so please go out and find someone to feed you food and take more care of you' so she went sadly she kept thinking of her mom and dad. Lysa walked on and on (the girl's name was Lysa) until she came to a pretty house she was so tired she could hardly make it to the door, she was scared to ring the door bell the person could be mean or something like that but on the other side she ~~could~~ could be nice, she walked a little bit she tripped and by accident she ~~was~~ rung the door bell she stood up she was scared she was about to run away but the door opened a nice lady was standing there she told Lysa to come in, the lady had had a own kid of hers but is grown up, the lady ~~seemed~~ very nice Lysa told her the story the lady understood, she told Lysa to live with her Lysa was very happy, she they would be good together.

The Trading Post Session III '85

Shula Kraiger: "Sun! The camp's Trading Post!"

If someone needs a can, soap, or toothpaste,

Shula's got it!!! Other products supplied by the Trading Post are gum, mints, diet drinks, and

C.E.C. shirts, and sweatshirts. Shula saves, counts, and keeps track of everyone's money in the whole camp!! As you can imagine, Shula Kraiger has a tough role to fulfill!! Thanks a million, Shula!!
