

Bay # _____ Lift Manufacturer _____
 Model # _____ Serial # _____
 Capacity _____, _____ lbs

Initial each box monthly if ok - Mark with a X if the lift requires attention and inform your service manager/shop foreman/owner

	JAN	FEB	MAR	APR	MAY	JUN	JUL	AUG	SEP	OCT	NOV	DEC
Record location of manufacturer instructions, generic safety instructions and lift point information
Check Accessibility and readability of warning labels
Confirm adequacy of clearances around lift
Examine all structural components including welds
Examine electrical components and wiring
Check lift controls and the integrity of tamper resistant seals of the pressure relief valves
Check swing arm restraints and telescopic arm stops
Check all fasteners and anchor bolts
Operate the lift through full travel and observe, check the operation of the positive stop as well as the lifts locks
Check all lift adapters condition and proper operation
With a representative vehicle on the lift check the lowering speed, Stop the load at midpoint and observe
Lubricate all points requiring lubrication (Cables, slider blocks, arm pins, sheaves, arm restraints etc.)
Check synchronization of equalization system (locks should click simultaneously)
Check all cables and chains including links and all terminations - Check the tracking and level winding
Check all accessible piping, tubing, hose, valves and fittings
Confirm cylinder venting provisions
Confirm oil level adequacy at full height
For runway style lifts, check to ensure proper operation of all features (wheel chocks, alignment pad locks, etc.)
For Inground lifts confirm rotation prevention, check all trench covers & report the presence of liquid in any pit

Operator's Name _____

If any issues are found please inform your foreman and lock lift out accordingly
 Call (902) 465-4333 to book a service call