

CRIM ANTHEM

CONQUER

Conquer those who seek to conquer you. You are your own master. Rise to the occasion. Stand up, and be proud.

The world is yours for the taking. Nothing is more real. Nothing is more precise than the success that you have earned.

Claim it. Name it. Call it. It is yours for the taking. I am my own destiny. I am my own reality. I am the oil, that always, rises, to the top.

I am the success that I have always strived to be.

I am, I am, I declare, I am, me!
