Tina Christensen has been a part of the Racine food scene since 1991. Tina is experienced in every aspect of the food service industry – having used her culinary talents managing, cooking, serving and bartending at many local eateries in and around the Racine area.

Tina owned and operated The Pink Magnolia from 2009 to 2019 and her resume also includes stints at Racine Yacht Club, Fifth Street Yacht Club, the original Corner House, Hob Nob, Henry & Wanda's, Olde Madrid and Gianotti's in Oak Brook, IL. Tina's current undertaking has been at the Harbor Lite Yacht Club where she has been running the HLYC restaurant since 2019 – creating dishes using the best and freshest ingredients available.

Tina has a myriad of interests and work experiences. Tina also operates Flowers by Walter along with her parents since 2001. And, thanks to her many years in the restaurant industry, Tina was able to finance her two Bachelor degrees – one in Communications from UW Parkside and the other in Film & Television from Columbia College which also add to her myriad of interests and life experiences.
