

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Israel Menez, current Video Tactical Analyst at Austin FC. I am writing this letter of support for Navadi. I had the pleasure of coaching him during Oregon ODP 2025-2026.

Nadavi is a high-upside player with the profile and mentality to compete in a high environment. I am confident in his ability to perform at the college level.

He is a coachable, driven individual whose commitment to daily improvement sets him apart. Nadavi consistently looks to refine all areas of his game, and his tactical understanding has progressed at a strong rate during the time I have worked with him. He approaches training with intensity and purpose and carries a clear competitive edge. Nadavi offers valuable versatility. He can play as a fullback / wingback or winger, though he is most effective as a fullback. In that position, he demonstrates strong positional awareness, composure in possession, and the ability to read the game at a high level. Technically, he is clean and efficient, and he makes good decisions under pressure — traits that translate well to higher levels of play. He also hustles back in transition to defend.

Equally important, Nadavi is a reliable and respected presence within the group. He trains and conducts himself with professionalism, consistency, and accountability, aligning with the standards expected in a high-performance environment.

I have no hesitation in recommending Nadavi to any college program. He has the mindset, work ethic, and foundational qualities to continue progressing within the game.

Sincerely,
Israel Menez
