

ADIRONDACK H.O.G.® CHAPTER 3220

Privacy Statement

How we handle your information online

Personal privacy and security of information are mutual concerns of H.O.G.®, its members, and visitors to the Adirondack H.O.G. website.

This Statement explains H.O.G.'s Internet policies and security measures relating to personal privacy and information.

Information we collect

The Adirondack H.O.G. collects and stores the following information about you when you visit the Adirondack H.O.G. website: the name of the domain from which you access the Internet (for example, aol.com); the date and time you access the site; and the Internet address of the website from which you linked directly to our site.

The chapter uses this information to measure the number of visitors to the different sections of its site. This helps H.O.G.® to make its site more responsive to its members and prospective members.

Personally identifying information

H.O.G.® will not obtain personally identifying information about you when you visit our site unless you choose to provide such information. If you choose to send e-mail, registration, or other personal information over the Internet, you do so voluntarily.

In short:

We only collect basic site-traffic data automatically. We never collect your personal details unless you choose to give them to us — for example, by emailing us or filling out a membership form.

How we share information

The Adirondack H.O.G. will not disclose personal information provided to it except as follows:

- At your request, which may be oral, in writing, by telephone, electronic or other means we recognize, to assist H.O.G.® in evaluating its programs and to continue to improve the quality of your online and membership experience.
- When disclosure is required by law, such as pursuant to court order, subpoena, legal process or government agency examination or investigation, or to protect or enforce our rights.
- To companies that perform services for H.O.G.® in connection with your membership, such as data processing and financial transaction processing companies, website builder and agencies.
- To Harley-Davidson affiliated companies and carefully selected third parties for their own use to provide products and services, or other opportunities to you, unless you have instructed us in writing not to do so.
- In connection with Harley-Davidson® corporate due diligence and audits.

Questions about this Privacy Statement?

Email a chapter officer at adkhog3220@gmail.com
if you'd like more detail on how your information is handled.