To Whom It May Concern:

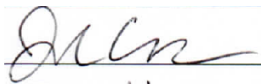

I had the pleasure of working with Dylan Palinkas in my English 11 American Perspectives Advanced College Prep course last year. In my class, I found Dylan to be a friendly and capable student who accepts new challenges with enthusiasm. He is a confident and hardworking young man- the kind of student who stands out from the rest of the classroom- and I strongly recommend him to your college to further his education.

Dylan is a conscientious person who works well with others in an educational setting. In class, Dylan was always prepared for the day and ready to work. His contributions to class were thoughtful and organized. He was an active participator in whole class and small group settings. I recommended that Dylan move up a level in English for his senior year, and I am confident that he will rise to meet- and ultimately exceed- the increased expectations of his upcoming Honors Mythology course. Dylan is a motivated and well-rounded addition to any classroom.

Dylan has big goals for the future, and he is willing to work hard to meet his goals. He has had his heart and mind set on pursuing a school of business while maintaining his active role in the basketball community since I have known him, and he is taking steps to make his goal a reality. Dylan excels in group and team scenarios, especially in his active role in his AAU basketball team. His strong work ethic, friendly demeanor and inclusionary attitude are a positive influence on the people he works with in this setting; and it mirrors his effect on our classroom.

Dylan Palinkas is a dedicated student and a positive influence on our school community. I enjoyed having him in my class, and I believe he will be very successful in a college setting. Therefore, it is with pleasure that I recommend him to your program as a college student. Please feel free to contact me if you have any further questions.

Sincerely,

John Evans
