

NB. In the rare occasion that the unidentified entity looks like a duck, but doesn't quack like a duck, rigorous experimentation is advised in order to encourage the duck to quack. If the entity still continues not to quack, either you accidentally killed it, it is mute, or it is not indeed a duck.