

2021 Newell Labor Day Rodeo Queen Pageant

Hello! Thank you for your interest in the Newell Labor Day Rodeo Queen Pageant! The date for this year's pageant is Saturday, August 28, 2021. The coordinators for the contest are Raye Brown and Cheyenne Winkler. The pageant will begin with Horsemanship. Please arrive at the Newell Arena dressed and ready for the Horsemanship. A short contestants meeting will be held promptly at 8:00 am in the bleachers by the entry gate and horsemanship will begin promptly at 8:30 am. The Horsemanship is open to the public. After Horsemanship is completed for all age groups, we will proceed to the Newell Christian Fellowship at 405 Elmira Ave, Newell SD. At 11:30 am, we will begin the Personal Introductions/Radio Ad/Impromptu Questions/Modeling. This is open to the public. After this portion of the contest, the public will be dismissed. A private Luncheon for the contestants, parents, and judges will be served. The contestants will be seated with the judges. Personal interviews will follow.

There are many events with this celebration and the contestants and families are encouraged to support.

Contestants are asked to ride in the parade on Labor Day, Monday, September 6th at 10 am. Please meet at the rodeo grounds and be ready to ride to the parade lineup by 9:15 am. Coronation will be held prior to the rodeo that afternoon at 12:30 pm. The winners of the contest are asked to stay and sell 50/50 raffle tickets.
