Dear John and Sue,

Thank you for your purchase of the Travel Plan by Inman Prepaid Repatriation Service. Your confidence in us is appreciated! We pledge to you that our service, when needed, will provide repatriation for human remains when death occurs one hundred (100) miles or more away from your legal residence. Your purchase provides prepaid lifetime service and includes:

- Retrieval from the place of death
- Preparation of the remains
- Securing appropriate documentation (Except cost of obtaining certified copies of the death certificate)
- Placement of the remains in an Air Transportation Association approved container
- Final transportation to the nearest commercial jetport large enough to accommodate the air shipment of human remains and serving the legal residence

Remember to keep the enclosed Travel Plan by Inman Identification Card in your wallet or purse so that it will be easily found if death occurs when you are away from your legal residence. When traveling, please remind your traveling companions or family that you are covered by the service. It is very important that your companion, associates or family call Travel Plan by Inman Service Center at 888-889-8508 (or 609-986-1296 outside of the United States) before others take any action to remove the remains. Our friendly and efficient customer service representatives will help with information and coordinate the repatriation with your survivors and the Funeral Home or provider of your choice.

We encourage you to give us your change of address as soon as that event takes place. It is important for our records to be correct so that there will be no confusion when service is requested. Your legal residence will be the determining factor for service at the time of your request. Please keep us informed.

Please verify that all the information on your permanent identification card is correct. If any changes are needed; please call the Travel Plan by Inman Administrative Center at 888-889-8508 (or 609-986-1296 outside the United States) to give us the corrected information for your permanent file. Once again, thank you for your purchase of the Travel Plan by Inman Service Agreement.
