AGI Financial selects the Travel Plan by Inman as their preferred Travel Plan provider

AGI Financial, a leader in the final expense and preneed industry, has chosen the Travel Plan by Inman as their travel plan provider. “AGI’s first concern is giving our customers the best choices possible. We only offer products that align with our own high standards for customer service,” stated CEO Brian Piacentini. “I had heard good things about the Travel Plan by Inman and owner Dave McComb. When it came to choosing a travel plan to offer our families - the Travel Plan by Inman was our only choice.”

“It is our honor to be associated with a company like AGI Financial,” said Dave McComb, Inman Shipping Worldwide CEO. “My entry into the funeral industry was through the preneed part of my family’s funeral home. I believe the Travel Plan by Inman is a valuable product for families and a great source for additional income for our marketers.”

The Travel Plan by Inman offers AGI Financial family’s peace of mind in knowing loved ones won’t have to worry about details or cost should they die away from home. A one-time fee of $450 covers the cost of bringing a loved one home for ceremony if they die more than 100 miles from home. This coverage is good anywhere in the world. Costs could range anywhere from $1,500 - $15,000.
