

Travel Plan by Inman Frequently Asked Questions

Q. How does the Travel Plan by Inman work?

A. The Travel Plan by Inman uses Inman Shipping Worldwide's network of agents all over the world to assist in bringing a loved one home for the ceremony?

Q. Do participants pay annually for coverage?

A. There is a one-time, lifetime fee of $450 for coverage anywhere in the world. ($450 single, $875 couple).

Q. Is there an age limit?

A. No. The plan is available to anyone.

Q. What do participants get when they purchase a plan?

A. Upon receipt of a paid Travel Plan, a participant will receive a welcome letter, hard plastics member identification card and a change of address card.

Q. When does the Plan come into effect?

A. The plan becomes active when Inman Home Office processes the agreement and payment.

Q. Does the plan include airfare?

A. Yes! Costs could range as much as $15,000 - $20,000 this is covered with the one-time payment of $450.

Q. What happens if arrangements are made without calling the Travel Plan by Inman first at the time of need?

A. The plan is not a reimbursement plan, and no fulfillment will be made.

Q. If someone changes their mind after purchase, how long can they receive a refund?

A. Refunds will be made up to 30 days from purchase date.

Q. What does the plan cover?

A. The plan covers to transfer to the funeral home for preparation, embalming, necessary paperwork including one death certificate, shipping container, transfer to airport capable of shipping and receiving human remains as well as the airfare.

Paul Bartlett

888-215-1144

paul@alternativelegacy.com

www.alternativelegacyplanning.com

Special note:

This is not a policy or a guaranteed offer of insurance. All descriptions are intended solely to inform you about coverage options. Any difference between this outline and any Inman Travel Plan released documents from Inman, Inman Travel Plan documents will prevail.