

We the People

On this Great Southland remember all who built & defended our Island Nation. Who with courage & tenacity pushed through immense odds to forge the way for peace & prosperity. Together we're the Spirit of Australia with Respect, Compassion & Love for all our compatriots.

As in the past,
today we are
One People.

“Corporate cartels don't speak for aboriginal people every Australian should feel welcome in their own country.”
Elder Alan Coe

