

We the People

On this Great Southland remember all who built and defended our Island Nation. Who with courage and tenacity pushed through immense odds to forge the way for peace and prosperity. Together we are the Spirit of Australia with love compassion and respect for our compatriots.

As in the past,
today we are
One People.

“Fight together
not each other”
Sissy King Elder

