

Rebels

O Israel, avid rebels! ... you were called a rebel from birth (Isaiah 48:8).

Awake! Turn your hatred to the rogue heavenly sons of God who despise the Creator.

Fill to the brim, the obstinance in your heart and lavishly spill your disobedience over the wicked heavenly leaders who deceive all mankind.

Take your changed heart of flesh, turn it into flint and strike the evil princes who rule over the nations, until they are dust under your feet.

Then, while filled with zeal and passion to destroy wickedness, vow to forever hate evil, never to return to it, and crush it the moment it raises its ugly head.

For you are rebels—for God, the Almighty God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob! Serve Him only.
