The Beast from out of the Sea

The Rise of the Five Eyes

“At that time Michael, the great prince who stands watch over your people, will rise up. There will be a time of distress, the likes of which will not have occurred from the beginning of nations until that time. But at that time your people—everyone whose name is found written in the book—will be delivered” (Daniel 12:1).

Scripture foretold hundreds of years ago that mankind would be protected from them, until the Archangel Michael receives the order to stand down.

What powers is the great Archangel Michael keeping back in order to protect God’s people and in doing so, is protecting all of mankind?

Is the powerful Archangel Michael dealing with powerful mortals whose weaponry is incomparable to the formidable might of the rulers, powers and principalities in heaven and there some, apparently, on earth as the Apostle Paul warned in Ephesians 6:12.

“For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this world’s darkness, and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.”

So, the battle mankind confronts is not against mortals, but against spiritual rulers, powers and principalities that exist in heaven and on earth. So, the American fear of Russia, Russia, Russia is an empty wind storm. For years, Christian theologians have taught that the bear who is part of the beast that rises from out of the sea described in Revelation is Russia. But have they considered which nations on earth would be the lion? Jesus Christ has been described as the Lion of Judah. Who would be the leopard? Worst still, who from the nations on earth would be the terrifying fourth beast where no animal on earth could be likened to it?

I suggest that Christian theologians redirect their attention to the Apostle Paul’s warning. Mankind is not the enemy. Mankind should not be fighting against each other. Our battle is not against flesh and blood, but against terrifying and horrible spiritual beings, rebels against the Almighty God who exist both in heaven and on earth. It will take a powerful spiritual being to take down these rebel, spiritual beings.

The common citizen on earth will wonder where, if there even exists, a place of operation for these rebel spiritual beings on earth. They will admit that dark forces do exist as evil actions, oppression and corruption are visible, but they will fall back into common thought that it is people as their primary focus, pushing the real enemies back into the darkest shadows.

The Judo-Christian journey will reach a climax in the last days, during the Great Tribulation—Jacob’s trouble. An awakening in horror will jolt them into looking beyond common thought to search out and understand for themselves the surreal reality when the Archangel Michael is ordered to step away and trouble and great distress come upon God’s people—all 900 million of them who are the twelve nations of Israel in the 21st century.

PLACE OF OPERATION ON EARTH

The spiritual rebels have established centres on earth for their work. Their headquarters in heaven will be overthrown and it will be evident on earth, when Satan and all of his coalition of fallen angels are thrown down to earth.

There is a location on earth that is bringing attention to the oddities of its value; it is Antarctica. It has been said that past President Hussein Obama went there and John Kerry, among others.

John Kerry becomes first US top diplomat to visit Antarctica

Nov 12, 2016 ... MCMURDO STATION, Antarctica (AFP) - Secretary of State John Kerry became the highest-ranking US government official to visit Antarctica on ...

Antarctica brought lots of attention to itself after Worldwide 11, after Admiral Bird was sent down there. His experience brought a level of urgency and alarm to the president of the United States at that time. His assignment was called Project High Jump.

Since then, strange details are surfacing into the space of the common people. An interview Kerry Cassidy had with Simon Parkes uncovers a trail of big pieces to the great puzzle that points to the location on earth of likely, the beast from out the earth.

“Then I saw another beast, coming out of the earth. He had two horns like a lamb, but spoke like a dragon...” (Revelation 13:11).

In addition to keeping the powerful and raging rebels in heaven from destroying creation on earth, the Archangel Michael is likely standing to keep the beast who operates on earth from exercising his immense power that can destroy, with little effort, God’s people and any nation he chooses to touch.

ANTARCTICA

Interviewed on Nino's Corner, Brad Olson described the baffling experience of Admiral Bird in Antarctica and the very old being who is the leader and head of activity in his domain there.

Certainly, Antarctica is a hub of activity for multiple nations today. A treaty was formed among twelve nations that has now been extended to include 44 other countries. The US National Science Foundation provides succinct details of the Antarctic Treaty.

It states, "The 12 nations listed in the preamble (below) signed the Antarctic Treaty on 1 December 1959 at Washington, D.C. The Treaty entered into force on 23 June 1961; the 12 signatories became the original 12 consultative nations.

Since 1959, 44 other countries have acceded to the Treaty, Twenty-nine nations (Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Brazil, Bulgaria, Chile, China, Czechia, Ecuador, Finland, France, Germany, India, Italy, Japan, Korea (ROK), Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Peru, Poland, Russian Federation, South Africa, Spain, Sweden, Ukraine, United Kingdom, United States, and Uruguay) have achieved consultative status by conducting substantial scientific research in Antarctica. Russia carries forward the signatory privileges and responsibilities established by the former Soviet Union.

The other 27 nations (Austria, Belarus, Canada, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Denmark, Estonia, Greece, Guatemala, Hungary, Iceland, Kazakhstan, Korea (DPRK), Malaysia, Monaco, Mongolia, Pakistan, Papua New Guinea, Portugal, Romania, Slovakia, Slovenia, Switzerland, Türkiye, and Venezuela) have acceded to the Treaty in a non-consultatory capacity. Non-Consultative Parties are invited to attend the Consultative Meetings but do not participate in the decision-making.

The 56 Antarctic Treaty nations represent about two-thirds of the world's human population."

[preamble] The Governments of Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Chile, the French Republic, Japan, New Zealand, Norway, the Union of South Africa, The Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, and the United States of America.

Antarctica is a busy place. In recent news, Iran is claiming property rights. It is difficult for the average citizen in the world to understand Iran's assertion. Certainly, if there are presently 56 countries there now, why not allow Iran as well? What is there that holds them back from allowing all countries of the world into the Antarctic Treaty since it is said that the continent is designated "as a scientific preserve, establishing freedom of scientific investigation, and banning military activity" (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Antarctic\_Treaty\_System).

The interview Kerry Cassidy had with Simon Parkes on March 14, 2024 provides some thought-provoking answers. Simon states that both Iran and Iraq claim to have some ancient historical ties to Antarctica that given them property rights today. <https://www.simonparkes.org>

When the great Archangel Michael is ordered to step away, all hell will break loose. If it is as Simon Parkes and Brad Olson state: a place with an ancient being who looks somewhat human and heads an operation where amazing technologies exist, then the common people will be disgusted in their leadership for keeping this great find a secret. They will not be prepared for what will proceed from there. The ancient being initially may want to befriend these people but as scripture has prophesied, the beast from out of the earth will have two horns "like a lamb, but speak like a dragon." He will claim to have the authority of a High Priest, hence the horns of a lamb, but his true darkness will not be hidden. He will speak exactly like Satan, the great dragon who rages against Almighty God and despises Jesus Christ.

THE SEA, THE DOMAIN OF WICKEDNESS

Assuming this rebel ancient being in Antarctica is the beast from out of the earth, the knowledge of this mysterious being will surface at the same time that the beast from out of the sea arrives on earth.

Revelation 13 describes a beast coming out of the sea. This could be interpreted as a beastly force coming out, somewhere on earth, out of the oceans of earth. But, in God's use of imagery, He describes Satan's headquarters in heaven as a great battleship on the high seas.

In the book of Ezekiel, God addressed Satan by the name of his domain in heaven, Tyre. "Son of man, take up a lament concerning Tyre. Say to Tyre, situated at the gateway to the sea, merchant of peoples on many coasts, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: 'You say, O Tyre, I am perfect in beauty.' Your domain was on the high seas; your builders brought your beauty to perfection. They made all your timbers of pine trees from Senir [Hermon], they took a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you. Of oaks from Bashan, they made your oars; of cypress wood from the coasts of Cyprus [Kittim] they made your deck, inlaid with ivory. Fine embroidered linen from Egypt was your sail and served as your banner; your awnings were of blue and purple from the coasts of Elishah. Men of Sidon and Arvad were your oarsmen; your skilled men, O Tyre, were aboard as your seamen. Veteran craftsmen of Gebal were on board as shipwrights to caulk your seams. All the ships of the sea and their sailors came alongside to trade for your wares..." (Ezekiel 27:2-9).

God used a lot of imagery in those verses. Verse 27 of Ezekiel, it described Satan's battleship comprised of specific types of trees such as the cedar, which God has used to describe His great leaders in His heavenly court. God Almighty speaking to the heavenly ruler over Egypt said, "Consider Assyria, once a cedar in Lebanon..." (Ezekiel 31:3a). "The cedars in the garden of God could not rival it..." (Ezekiel 31:8a). This leader was brought down by Almighty God because he turned against God. "It was proud of its height, I handed it over to the ruler of the nations, for him to deal with according to its wickedness. I cast it aside..." (Ezekiel 31:10b-11).

Typically, God uses earthly imagery to describe spiritual beings and places. Ezekiel 27 describes a great ship in the high seas. It is Satan's domain and he uses a rebel cedar—leader from God's headquarters, as his mast. This leader has knowledge of God's plans; he was in God's headquarters. He provides Satan with important intelligence that will provide Satan with valuable navigation views against Almighty God.

THE KING OF TYRE

God said to the king of Tyre, "... lament concerning the king of Tyre and say to him: 'You were the model of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. You were in Eden, the garden of God... You were anointed as a guardian cherub, for so I ordained you. You were on the holy mount of God, you walked among the fiery stones. You were blameless in your ways from the day you were created till wickedness was found in you... I expelled you, O guardian cherub, from among the fiery stones. Your heart became proud on account of your beauty, and you corrupted your wisdom because of your splendor'" (Ezekiel 28:12-13a, 14-15, 16b-17a).

God prophesied, and it remains still a future event, "So I threw you to earth; I made a spectacle of you before kings... All the nations who knew you are appalled at you; you have come to a horrible end and will be no more" (Ezekiel 28:17b, 19).

THE SEA

The imagery of the sea as the home of Wickedness is clear in Revelation 21:1. “Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and THERE WAS NO LONGER ANY SEA” (Revelation 21:1).

When Christ has restored all things, the last enemy to be overthrown will be death (I Corinthians 15:26–28) for then, there will be no sin—no wickedness. At that time, God will create a new heaven and a new earth and there will be NO SEA—no haven for wickedness.

God likens WICKED ENTITIES and WICKED PEOPLE to the waves of the sea that push and pull people away from truth kicking up falsehood and deceit, hidden reefs that cause trouble, impersonators of righteousness for their own evil goals, evil practitioners that froth up in shame, undisciplined emotions that rage in anger, shouting voices, intimating presence, and unethical users of fearful, bullying tactics.

"The wicked are like the TROUBLED SEA, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt" (Isaiah 57:20).

"These men are the HIDDEN REEFS in your love feasts, shamelessly feasting with you but shepherding only themselves" (Jude 1:12).

This scripture specifically identifies wicked heavenly entities. “They are WILD WAVES OF THE SEA, foaming up their own shame; wandering stars, for whom blackest darkness has been reserved forever” (Jude 1:13).

The Psalmist describes them using God’s imagery. “The seas have lifted up, LORD, THE SEAS HAVE LIFTED UP THEIR VOICE; the seas have lifted up their pounding waves. Above the roar of many waters—the mighty breakers of the sea—the LORD on high is majestic” (Psalm 93:3-4).

THE DEEP WATERS, THE HEART OF THE SEA IMAGES THE HEADQUARTERS OF WICKEDNESS. King David praised God and thanked Him for rescuing him from wicked, powerful enemies. “I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised; so shall I be saved from my enemies. For the waves of death engulfed me; the torrents of chaos overwhelmed me... He reached down from on high and took hold of me; HE DREW ME OUT OF DEEP WATERS. He rescued me from my powerful enemy, from my foes, who were too strong for me. They confronted me in the day of my disaster, but the LORD was my support” (II Samuel 22:4-5, 17-19).

King David prayed many times for saving, “Rescue me from the mire and do not let me sink; deliver me from my foes and OUT OF THE DEEP WATERS. Do not let the floods engulf me or the depths swallow me up; let not the Pit close its mouth over me” (Psalm 69:14-15).

“Reach down from heaven and rescue me; rescue me from deep waters, from the power of my enemies, whose mouths speak falsehood, whose right hands are deceitful” (Psalm 144:7-8).

Jonah prayed, when he found himself in the very headquarters of Wickedness. He experienced the hellish realm of the wicked and it terrified him. "In my distress I called to the LORD and He answered me. From the belly of Sheol I called for help, and You heard my voice. You hurled me into the depths, into THE VERY HEART OF THE SEAS, and the currents swirled about me; all your waves and breakers swept over me. I said, 'I have been banished from your sight; yet I will look again toward your holy temple. The engulfing waters threatened me, the deep surrounded me; seaweed was wrapped around my head... but you brought my life up from the pit, O Lord my God" (Jonah 2:2-6).

THE BEAST FROM OUT OF THE SEA

Again, the Apostle Paul warned Judo-Christians, they do not battle against mortals, but against rebel spiritual beings whose final battles will be lost on earth.

"Then a war broke out in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon and his angels fought back. But the dragon was not strong enough, and no longer was any place found in heaven for him and his angels. And the great dragon was hurled down—that ancient serpent called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world. He was hurled to the earth, and his angels with him" (Revelation 12:7-9).

Remember, God had Ezekiel record, "So I threw you to earth; I made a spectacle of you before kings" (Ezekiel 28:17b). Satan knows his time is short and his power is insufficient to win the final battle on earth, so he gives his throne, power and great authority to the beast from out of the sea (Revelation 13:4). The people on earth surrender to this formidable coalition of ten kings out of heaven with the beast. "The whole world was astonished and followed the beast... 'Who is like the beast? Who can make war against him?'" (Revelation 13:3b, 4b)

The nuclear weaponry of mankind can be disabled by these raging rebels with less than a touch. The world will surrender.

The nations on earth will see with the very eyes, a display of frightening, terrifying and horrific raw power poured upon God's faithful church imaged as the woman who is given the wings of an eagle and escapes the wrath of the dragon (Revelation 12:17). Then, the dragon will turn to the churches who obey God's commandments and hold to the testimony of Jesus. The attack will bring the nations on earth to their knees, as well as, the people of God who rejected religion a long time ago and have forgotten their roots. It will be a time like no other on earth. It will be terrifying, awakening the sleepy people of God to the reality of Jacob's trouble.

THE RISE OF THE FIVE EYES

Not all of God's people will be awake when the beast from out of the earth and sea reign. But, the first group to take a stand will begin before the alien arrival of Satan and his coalition. It is known by many that a spiritual battle is at play at present.

Prophecy has pointed to the house of Joseph to lead a religious revival in the same way that Joseph, in ancient times, fed the whole world during the great famine of his time.

“The five eyes” terminology refers to the primary five nations on earth: the U.S., the U.K., Canada, Australia and New Zealand who use satellite communications to gather information from the people of each country and then, share that information among all five of their governments, while declaring that they do not spy on their own people.

Unseen by many today, a battle is taking place between the White Hat Alliance and a Cabal coalition. This year could bring the beginning of the rise of the five eyes. The house of Joseph, in ancient times, was highly respected, but it fell; they lost their honour and integrity.

“You drink wine by the bowlful and use the finest lotions, but you do not grieve over the ruin of Joseph” (Amos 6:6).

Usually, God refers to the ten tribes who are the house of Israel as Ephraim because the youngest son of Joseph was given the leadership over them. God’s use of Joseph in Amos 6 and not Ephraim is identifying the loss of the righteous within the house. That will change. The house of Joseph, the West: U.S.A., U.K., Canada, Australia and New Zealand will ignite the greatest religious revival to ever flood the earth. While these countries are over-run by dark Cabal members at this moment, the battle in the shadows will come into the light. The West must overthrow all of the leaders within all five countries serving Wickedness in order to give power to the spiritual warriors within to take the legal testimony of Jesus Christ to the world because their judgement has begun. Surrendering to Satan and worshipping him and his beastly coalition will sentence them to eternal destruction, if they do not repent. A great witness must and will go out to all the world before this evil age can come to an end.

Jim Willie is a statistical analyst in marketing research and retail forecasting. His interview with Patrick of Patriot Underground hints to the rise of the five eyes—the West and the denouncing of their leadership to establish a new constitutional financial structure, backed by gold.

LIKE THE PARABLE OF THE TEN VIRGINS

God’s redeemed people are described as virgins because the price of their sins has been paid by Jesus Christ. They are no longer worshippers of the fallen, rebel angelic sons of God that is imaged as being adulterers. God’s people are covenanted into an intimate marriage-type relationship. There are twelve virgins, who are the twelve tribes of Israel. The parable is not addressing all twelve because not all of these virgins fell asleep. Two virgins belong to the woman who flees into the wilderness for three and a half years, leaving ten virgins to awaken quickly and get ready for the invitation to Christ's wedding. Only five of the ten will be ready in time to be invited.

Jesus has said to the people of the group who belong to Laodicea, "I know your deeds; you are neither cold nor hot. How I wish you were one or the other! So, because you are lukewarm—neither hot nor cold—I am about to vomit you out of My mouth! You say, 'I am rich; I have grown wealthy and need nothing.' But you do not realize that you are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind, and naked. I counsel you to buy from Me gold refined by fire so that you may become rich, white garments so that you may be clothed and your shameful nakedness not exposed, and salve to anoint your eyes so that you may see. Those I love, I rebuke and discipline. Therefore, be earnest and repent. Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in and dine with him, and he with Me. To the one who overcomes, I will grant the right to sit with Me on My throne, just as I overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne" (Revelation 3:15-21).

These people will be rejected by Jesus Christ if they do not overcome by recognizing their spiritual contradictions and invite Jesus Christ into their congregations to teach them the pure word of God. These people are like the five wise virgins who are asleep to their spiritual condition but will awaken in a fright during Jacob's trouble. Jesus is urging this group of people to exchange their faulty teachings with God's pure word, so that they will become righteous.

The five foolish virgins awaken to acknowledge God at a very late time of this evil age. They will likely participate in idol worship during the early reign of the beast. Despite this group's slow repentance, God has compassion on them because they are still part of His people. Christ's bride will be whisked away from the attack from Satan, the five wise will wake up and overcome to be accepted into the wedding of the Groom. The five foolish will be taken into captivity and scattered throughout the nations. God did not abandon them. He will be moulding them into a useful vessel in His Kingdom. "Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: Now I will restore Jacob from captivity and will have compassion on the whole house of Israel, and I will be jealous for My holy name. They will forget their disgrace and all the treachery they committed against Me, when they dwell securely in their land, with no one to frighten them. When I bring them back from the peoples and gather them out of the lands of their enemies, I will show My holiness in them in the sight of many nations" (Ezekiel 39:25-27).

God is also teaching the people in the nations on earth about what will be required from them when they come under His rulership. The nations of the world will learn that God is punishing His people because of their sins. "And the nations will know that the people of Israel went into exile for their sin, because they were unfaithful to me. So, I hid my face from them and handed them over to their enemies, and they all fell by the sword. I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and their offenses, and I hid my face from them" (Ezekiel 39:23-24).

When God describes the fall of this group of His people by the sword, I suspect that He is judging them by His word and they failed. God's word is often described as a double-edged sword.

The Apostle Paul urged Judo-Christians, “Take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God” (Ephesians 6:17). The word of God is one of the weapons the Apostle Paul has said to use against our only enemies, those rebel angelic sons of God in heaven and on earth.

“For the word of God is alive and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart” (Hebrews 4:12).

The five foolish virgins who repent will be saved. They will be the people to enter in the Holy Land under the Millennial reign of Christ on earth. The nations of the world will be watching this incredible event. A spirit being anointed King over all kings and Lord over all lords will begin his rulership on earth. Initially, they may not be convinced that this spiritual ruler is righteous and that he is the Son of God.

In a short time, however, the nations will witness righteous leadership and quickly an abundance of blessings will fill the Holy Land. They will likely witness the resurrection of ancient Israel and the population explosion in the Holy Land that will spill out in all directions. It will be a glorious time on earth.

God’s success in bringing His people into God-fearing and God-serving people will be the bright light on the hill and the model for the world. “In the last days the mountain of the house of the LORD will be established as the chief of the mountains; it will be raised above the hills, and the peoples will stream to it. And many nations will come and say: “Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob. He will teach us His ways, so that we may walk in His paths.” For the law will go forth from Zion and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. Then He will judge between many peoples and arbitrate for strong nations far and wide. Then they will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will no longer take up the sword against nation, nor will they train anymore for war” (Micah 4:1-3).

Jacob’s trouble is the soon-coming Great Tribulation. It will involve the final great battle of fallen, rebel angelic sons of God on earth who will target God’s people then the rest of the world. It will be a time like no other on earth, nor ever will be again.
