

Information comes in a variety of packages. God's people are called to recognize them, disarm the explosive lies, dissolve mistakes, expose the toxic narratives and question and test all old information for present-day validity.

“Then I looked and saw the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with Him 144,000 who had His name and His Father's name written on their foreheads... And no one could learn the song except the 144,000 who had been redeemed from the earth. These are the ones who have not been defiled with women, for they are virgins. They follow the Lamb wherever He goes. They have been redeemed from among mankind as first-fruits to God and to the Lamb. And no lie was found in their mouths; they are blameless” (Revelation 14:1, 3b-5).

The 144,000 men and women who will stand with Jesus Christ on Mount Zion speak the truth; they are honest and faithful; they are blameless, meaning, they are unwavering in their loyalty to Almighty God and they follow Jesus Christ wherever he goes.

Deception, deception, deception is the game at play today. Misinformation, disinformation, mal-information and old information are all techniques used by Wickedness to deceive mankind, lead them astray, keep them from seeing the truth, and hinder discovery.

Misinformation, Disinformation, Mal-information, Old information

In Dr. John Campbell's interview with researcher, James Roguski, the importance of testing information is discussed. The link to this video is provided here.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nNNFj-demy4>

We have entered into the final phase of this evil age. This last chapter is the filling of this world with misinformation, disinformation, mal-information and the capitalization of old information.

Researcher, James Roguski identified the various types of toxic information: misinformation, disinformation, and mal-information. In addition to these, he added, old information. This is a fascinating addition that most people totally ignore, and yet, it is the worst of them all. The religious traditions of men are an example of old information. It should be tested. Jesus warned the Pharisees about their old traditions that nullified the law of God.

“You have let go of the commands of God and are holding on to the traditions of men. You have a fine way of setting aside the commands of God in order to observe your own traditions! For Moses said, ‘Honor your father and your mother,’ and, ‘Anyone who curses his father or mother must be put to death.’ But you say that if a man says to his father or mother: ‘Whatever help you might otherwise have received from me is Corban’ (that is, a gift devoted to God), then you no longer let him do anything for his father or mother. Thus, you nullify the word of God by your tradition that you have handed down. And you do many things like that” (Mark 7:8-13).

Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forever. He did not celebrate Christmas or Easter and he kept the fourth commandment by resting on the Sabbath. Christmas and Easter are Christian traditions. Sabbath worship was changed by the bishops of the Laodicean council to Sunday worship. Old information does not always prove to be correct.

The apostles warned Judeo-Christians of what will come and it is present today and fast at work.

“Now the Spirit expressly states that in later times some will abandon the faith to follow deceitful spirits and the teachings of demons, influenced by the hypocrisy of liars, whose consciences are seared with a hot iron” (I Timothy 4:1-2).

The alien arrival of Satan and his beastly coalition will introduce medical science and life-extending technology and wonders unseen or known previously that will lure people into submitting under their controlling grip.

“For the time will come when men will not tolerate sound doctrine, but with itching ears they will gather around themselves teachers to suit their own desires. So, they will turn their ears away from the truth and turn aside to myths” (II Timothy 4:3-3).

“Indeed, all who desire to live godly lives in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, while evil men and imposters go from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived” (II Timothy 3:12-13).

Information is an every-day commodity used in decision making. Good information, constructive information, correct information are essential to understanding and implementing the appropriate actions in every-day life matters. Today, leaders in government, news reporting media and education are actively misinforming the public with the intent to deceive, push their bias, and promote their agenda. More than ever before, the public needs to test and retest all information before believing it and acting upon it.

Two guards stand at the door for all of mankind making it difficult for truth to enter. They are cognitive dissonance and confirmation bias.

Cognitive Dissonance

“The theory of cognitive dissonance proposes that people are averse to inconsistencies within their own minds. It offers one explanation for why people sometimes make an effort to adjust their thinking when their own thoughts, words, or behaviors seem to clash with each other. When one learns new information that challenges a deeply held belief, for example, or acts in a way that seems to undercut a favorable self-image, that person may feel motivated to somehow resolve the negative feeling that results—to restore cognitive consonance. Though a person may not always resolve cognitive dissonance, the response to it may range from ignoring the source of it to changing one’s beliefs or behavior to eliminate the conflict.”

<https://www.psychologytoday.com/ca/basics/cognitive-dissonance>

Mankind has a tendency to fall in love with their cherished ideas and beliefs. To question them is often an absurd notion. Old information that is upheld through tradition is the hardest to question because it has become set in stone. People holding recognized positions of authority often prevent old and new information from being questioned. Shame, ridicule and labelling are used to discourage individual thought and expression of any information that is not the pushed narrative. People who tightly embrace their ideas and beliefs are often afraid of a different set of beliefs and ideas, while others are aggressively pushing their beloved ideas and beliefs to force them upon others. In both cases the door is closed to listening and allowing differences in ideas and beliefs. The closed door is due to cognitive dissonance.

Confirmation Bias

“Confirmation bias is a psychological term for the human tendency to only seek out information that supports one position or idea. This causes you to have a bias towards your original position because if you only seek out information that supports one idea, you will only find information that supports that idea. This is in opposition to doing more comprehensive research that would expose you to opposing ideas.”

<https://www.webmd.com/balance/what-is-confirmation-bias>

There is great strength in formulating ideas and beliefs that are a result of extensive study and research. Listening to differences, exploring the logic that leads to conclusions, and researching all aspects of the narrative is critical to understanding and formulating a tested opinion.

Almighty God is molding people who will withstand the lies and deception of Wickedness on earth. These people will follow Jesus Christ wherever he goes. They will be testing their beliefs and ridding all “spots, wrinkles and blemishes” within their knowledge and understanding of God’s word and the narrative of the day from government, news reporting media and educators.

The apostles warned Judeo-Christians, “See to it that no one takes you captive by philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the world, and not according to Christ” (Colossians 2:8). Empty deceit implies an acceptance of information that has not been tested and retested.

The time is here already, but when the alien arrival of Satan and his coalition occurs, deception will reign in full measure. “And with all wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. Therefore, God sends them a strong delusion, so that they may believe what is false, in order that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness” (II Thessalonians 2:10-12).

Those who take pleasure in unrighteousness are the people who participate and foster all sorts of corruption and refuse to repent they will come into judgement before Almighty God. These people are sold into sin. They live for the acquisition of wealth, power and control. They are those who are instrumental in devising corrupt financial products, they misuse the law to bring false charges, they spread their hatred towards all who stand against them, they sexually abuse children and traffic people, they accept bribes, they enjoy stirring up trouble, they entrap innocent people, they are the children of Satan. God Almighty will cause these people to believe the lies they generate and spread.

Love Truth and Righteousness

Loving the truth and pleasure in doing what is right saves mankind. Almighty God will hear the prayers asking for eyes to see and ears to hear truth. Accepting Jesus Christ as the Saviour is the truth that leads to life eternal. “When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth, for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come” (John 16:13). Those who receive God’s Holy Spirit will have Christ in them to speak and guide them in truth.

“Then Pilate said to him, ‘So you are a king?’ Jesus answered, ‘You say that I am a king. For this purpose, I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice.’ Pilate said to him, ‘What is truth?’ After he had said this, he went back outside to the Jews and told them, ‘I find no guilt in him’” (John 18:37-38). Jesus spoke the truth and Pilate found no guilt.

God is in the making of His perfect government. It will be comprised of 144,000 men and women. The number, 144,000, is not likely the numerical count of all the members in His perfect government that will be comprised of people on earth, but, symbolic of an eternal (1,000) perfect cube (12X12) comprised of many layers of great strength equally strong in the height, width and depth. These men and women speak only the truth; they are honest; they are unwavering loyal to Almighty God; they follow Jesus Christ wherever he goes and they are blameless.

Noah was righteous and blameless. “This is the account of Noah and his family. Noah was a righteous man, blameless among the people of his time, and he walked faithfully with God” (Genesis 6:9).

Noah was blameless among the people of his time because he was faithful and loyal to God. Noah was not worshipping Satan like everyone else on earth. He was worshipping the Creator—the Almighty God. Noah was keeping God’s law, His ordinances and His ways.

Jesus revealed the Satanic worship of the masses when he said, “As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark. And they were oblivious, until the flood came and swept them all away. So will it be at the coming of the Son of Man” (Matthew 24:36-38).

The people did not believe Noah’s warning of a coming flood. They were oblivious because they were living in darkness, wicked people following Satan’s rule.

Only those living in sin will not be able to identify the signs of God’s wrath and the coming of Christ. “But you, brothers, are not in the darkness so that this day should overtake you like a thief. For you are all sons of the light and sons of the day; we do not belong to the night or to the darkness. So then, let us not sleep as the others do, but let us remain awake and sober” (I Thessalonians 5:4-6).

Those obeying God are the children of light and they will recognize the signs prior to the return of Christ. The most significant of these signs is the repentance of the 21st century nations of Israel. Jesus said, “Now learn the lesson from the fig tree” (Matthew 24:32). The fig tree is symbolic of God’s people. It will be during the time of Jacob’s trouble, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob will awaken the asleep among the 12 tribes of 21st century Israel. It will be during a time of great distress and they will start returning to their God, as “new twigs”—new growth, then you will know that summer is near and Jesus excitedly added, “Even so, when you see all these things, you know that it is near, right at the door” (Matthew 24:32-33).

The Symbolism of 144,000

The 144,000 people of Revelation have a significant role in God’s new government. The number 12 symbolizes perfect government nationally and religiously and 1,000 symbolizes eternity. 144,000 symbolizes the two different types of leadership: national [12] and religious [12] bound together into an eternal perfect government and all coming from the kingdom of Israel.

1,000 = eternal
12 = God’s government
12 X 12 = national and religious leadership
144 = a cube comprised of equal layers of strength

The characteristics of these 144,000 people from within the twelve nations of 21st century Israel are as follows:

- They are undefiled by the false theology of Satan and the rogue gods (Revelation 14:4).
- They all come from the 12 sons of Jacob. The tribe of Dan is excluded from the 144,000, likely due to his involvement in false religion. However, God will not reject them from the family. He has clearly stated that He will choose all of the tribes of Jacob again (Isaiah 14:1).

- They are honest. They do not deceive, compromise or whitewash wickedness that leads to the perversion of justice (Revelation 14:5).
- They follow, not lead, the Lamb – they speak the pure word of God—no self-interpretations of scripture taught as doctrine (Revelation 14:4). Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forever. They follow his example without changing anything he did or taught.
- They are servants of God—humble, not self-elevating (Revelation 7:3).
- They are sealed/protected from the wrath of the Lamb and God (Revelation 7:3).
- They have the name of the Son and God, the Father on their foreheads [pledged allegiance to Jesus Christ and Almighty God] in contrast to the “inhabitants on the earth” who have the name and number of the beast on their foreheads (Revelation 14:1).
- They are offered as first-fruits to God and the Lamb—possibly meaning that they are the first to be resurrected upon Christ’s return (Revelation 14:4b), right when the sixth seal is opened.
- They are standing with “the Lamb” on Mount Zion (Revelation 14:1).
- They are the “called, chosen and faithful followers” with Christ when he battles the beast (Revelation 17:14).

The 144,000 sing a new song that only they know. A song may be the joy released from victory. Moses recorded a song in Deuteronomy 32, Deborah sang a song in Judges 5, the four living creatures and the 24 elders sing a new song in Revelation 5:9-10.

The 144,000 men and women who will form God’s new government will stand against Satan and his beastly coalition of liars and deceivers. They know the truth and they are free from the slavery of Satan’s falsehood. “And you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free” (John 8:32). Misinformation, disinformation, mal-information and old information will be recognized for what it is among God’s people, His 144,000 who know Him and follow Jesus wherever he goes.

As Satan deceived Eve, so he continues to attack all of mankind on earth. The truth will rise out of Satan’s darkness. Choose truth and live.

Compiled by Janette Andrejowich.

<https://sharingsharpens.ca>