

Fabric Painting With InkTense Blocks and Pencils

Supply List

Instructor: Kaye Joachim

Cost of Class: $5.00

Supplies:

- A few different fabrics with NATURAL fiber content (cotton, silk, linen) to play around with and experiment. Please have at least fat-quarter size and select LIGHT colors (white, eggshell, cream, or even pastels) so that your art will show up. You can also quilt your design first and paint after OR you can paint first and quilt after. You can also paint on canvas, a plain canvas tote bag, etc.
- Derwent InkTense Ink Blocks or Pencils. I use the blocks which I ordered from Amazon as I was not able to find them locally. The blocks and pencils are available in a variety of quantities, from the basics to a complete set. Please order what you feel you will use or what you can afford. I ordered the complete set which was around $100.00, but you do not have to have the complete set to achieve amazing results. You are more than welcome to use mine for the class.
- Textile Medium, at least 2 oz bottle, available at most arts and crafts stores in the fine arts section near the paints. Any brand is fine. You can also just use water. Again, you can use mine for the class if you do not want to purchase any of these supplies.
- Variety of brushes. You should be able to find a nice variety/starter pack in the fine arts section. I only have a couple of brushes so you may want to bring your own.
- Water jar. Mine is an old pickle jar
- Smock or Apron to protect your clothes in case of spills or accidents. This is optional, as using InkTense is a very tidy medium.
- Old rag or t-shirt to dab off your brushes.

The only "homework" for this class would be if you decide to quilt first and paint after. There is no pattern. I used a light box and traced the seahorse, then quilted it and took it to class to paint. The sunflower was painted first then I quilted it. The tote bag is just painted. The beach/ocean scene was quilted and painted later.
