Show 'n' Tell

Kaye Joachim's "Strip Twist" quilt that she made from the pink strips she won from the Fabric Exchange..... the sewing machine pad and thread catcher she made from Liz Barnes' workshop..... and Kaye's Storm at Sea "Heart at Sea" quilt.

Diane Roberson's "Crystal Star"

Margaret Jacobs and her "Comet" reindeer hand embroidery

Diane also made the "Dancing Ribbons" wall-hanging and her "Hot Stuff" potholders.

Ruthie Reynoso and her Watercolor quilt.

Two colorful quilts by Pam Cortner -- the left one is a Marcia Brady "Blooming Bunch" -- made with a jelly roll of fabrics from the Marcia Brady collection. The right one is pinwheel flowers, and quilted by member Peggy Murrell from A Stitch in Time.

Quilts by Cathy Ferke

Kimberbell "Make Yourself at Home"
-- lots of piecing and applique!

Border Creek Station
Mystery Block of the Month

"Sisterhood" design by Hoop Sisters -
- lots of embroidery and quilting!

Jane Chiles' quilt to the left was a Round Robin made while she was in Arizona. The personalized back label told the story, and had all the names of the people who worked on it.

Jane also made a bag with a custom fabric photo on it, made by fellow member Sandra Conleton.

Janet Kinner made this Christmas quilt with minky fabric on the back to make it nice and cozy in the winter.

Ruth Johnson completed her UFO, and plans on making several more.

Kerry Kastl usually doesn't make scrappy quilts, but these she made are beautiful! The left one is the Pineapple design, and the right is the Raspberry Roll.

Martha Rose makes a lot of quilts from fabric she finds on the "free" table, and donates them to charity. This "Romantique" quilt is no exception. Close-up view on the right.
