NON-JUDGED CATEGORIES

- FNQG Classroom Showcase: We will include an exhibit of quilts made in FNQG-related activities. These include mystery quilts, block of the month, row-by-row, round robin, or December blocks. The category also includes quilts or quilt-related items made in an FNQG workshop or retreat class. A member having one (or more) of these quilts can choose to enter their quilt in one of the judged categories above or display it in this exhibit.
- Patriotic Showcase: Quilts of Valor and other patriotic themed quilts, meant to showcase our work on behalf of local veterans, and honor this nation's 250's birthday celebration. A member having a patriotic quilt may choose to enter their quilt in one of the judged categories above or display it in this exhibit.
- Non-judged: A maker may wish to show a quilt but does not want their entry to be judged. Those quilts should be entered into this category regardless of what techniques were used. While we encourage all quilters to enter their quilts in a judged category, we will leave this category open to be used at the discretion of the maker. We also reserve the right to move quilts to this category as needed based on limits set by the judge. Affected entrants will be contacted regarding a change of category.
