January Program

This month we will have a short, interactive program from Jacquie Barber from the Yoga Junkie Studio in Niceville. She will be teaching us the importance of stretching and moving while we are sitting at our sewing machines for extended periods of time.

January Workshop

Jeanie will teach a wool on flannel rug mug. The kit will include flannel, soft fuse, wool, needle, thread, batting, and backing. This will be a great way to get your feet wet or brush up on stitching for the retreat. She will show the following stitches: blanket stitch, lazy daisy stitch, and colonial knot.

Retreat

2020 reTREAT - the deadline for getting your registration for classes at the retreat at Hilton Garden Inn on Okaloosa Island is January 31, 2020. There is still room in most classes and sit n sew. Please come join us for fun, fellowship, and prizes.

There's a retreat meeting following the January general meeting. All are welcome.

The new due date for Needle Note submissions is the Thursday after the general meeting. This includes friendship groups, programs, workshops and the like. When you send information to Jayne, please send it to Emily Jacobs as well should it be something that needs to be on the website. Please send Emily anything pertinent to our website – show and tell pictures, QOV presentation pictures, and workshop project photos, patterns and directions if you are teaching a workshop. Thank you for your cooperation.

Upcoming QOV presentations:

January 18, 2020 and

February 15, 2020.

All presentation are scheduled at the Air Armament Museum at 1:00 pm. Barbara Ouellette would like to see as many guild members at the presentations as possible.

Note from the President

Happy New Year! Please join me in welcoming our two newest members, Maria Holbrook and Joyce Bean.

Let's embrace 2020 with open arms and start it with a commitment to fellowship by allowing bygones to be bygones and make an effort to accept differences so we can obtain our common goals.

We have workshops, a retreat fast approaching with the quilt show preparation right on its heels, sit & sews, Slash Your Stash Saturdays and fundraisers planned for the year. Many members are involved in the planning and I know our members are looking forward to participating. I can already hear the machines humming along.

The webpage has had a makeover! Check out our webpage to see what is on the calendar and who is coordinating efforts. <http://www.flyingneedlesquiltguild.org> I encourage you to call, text or email me, or any of the board members with your guild related concerns.

Pam

If you won the September birthday certificate, please let Christina Belcher know so you can claim your prize.

December's strips were won by Barbara Roberts. January's strip club will be blue.

For those of you who are interested in completing some of your unfinished projects that have been cluttering up your sewing area, this is the group for you. Please bring a list of 12 projects to the January meeting. We will choose a number from 1 to 12 and you will have one month to finish your project and show us at the next guild meeting. If, by chance, you don't get it finished, you will have to bring a fat quarter. In previous years, a project could be one intricate appliqué block, a small quilt, or even binding a large quilt. Whatever you have languishing in your sewing room, closet, or even under the bed. At the end of the year during the December social, the member who has completed the most projects from her list will be awarded all the fat quarters that have been collected throughout the year. The purpose of this group is to try and reduce your unfinished projects and to have fun.

Round Robin - if you signed up for the regular Round Robin (not the QOV Round Robin), please be sure to bring to the January general meeting and give to Kaye Joachim your center block, fabrics you want to use, a journal introducing yourself and your vision for your quilt in a project box or bag. Be sure your name and telephone number are inside your journal .
