June Program

Anne Johnson, 1st VP

Left-Right-Center

Join us for a rousing morning of Left-Right-Center. Be sure to bring 3 fat quarters to play and, if you are lucky, go home with lots of fabric! We will have limited fat quarters available for purchase if you forget.

Quilting Tips

Come to the meeting with at least one favorite sewing or quilting tip to share with your tablemates.

Reminders

Door prizes, show and tell items and snacks to share are always welcome and appreciated.

You should be working on your "ugly fabric" blocks. They will be due at the August meeting. We have lots already turned in. Make sure you don't miss out.

June Workshop

Konnie Glaze, 2nd VP

June 22, 2023 Workshop

Hanky-Panky

Led by Linda Weiss

$5.00 workshop fee due at registration

Enjoy gathering antique hankies, doilies and embellishments, and then join in on the fun of creating a quilted antique linens project measuring 19" x 19". I'm sure there will be lot of great stories and reminiscing as we make our personal keepsake.

Upcoming Workshops: Konnie Glaze

Workshops are held each month on the fourth Thursday of the month, except February, November and December. The workshop cost is $5.00, paid at the time of registration. Some months will have pattern and kit fees which are also paid at registration. Sign-up and supply sheets can be found at the general meetings, and the supply lists are on the website as well. Join us this year for some fun workshops and try your hand at something new! Contact Konnie Glaze with questions.

July 27, 2023 Workshop

Let's Make Rope Bowls!

Led by Diane Roberson

$5.00 workshop fee due at registration

Join in as Diane leads us through the process of making rope bowls. Make the bowl your own with thread choice, or by adding a little fabric or embellishments.

August 24, 2023 Workshop

Any Witch Way Wall Hanging

Led by Anne Johnson

$5.00 workshop fee due at registration

Buy your pattern online.

These witches on this 24" x 24" wall quilt are anything but scary! Their hats entwine in the friendliest way at the quilt center. Join us for what will be a fun day of friendship and sewing.

September 28, 2023 Workshop

Mystery Trip – TBA

October 26, 2023 Workshop

“JOY” Needle Turn Applique

Led by Nancy Miller

Details coming soon

Row by Row, 2023: Kaye Joachim

Your row by row is due at the June general meeting. Please give it to Kaye before the meeting starts and she will give you the next row.

December Block : Konnie Glaze

How are your December Blocks coming along? More than half of the participants have already turned in their blocks! It's never too early to turn in your completed blocks, and you can turn them all in at once if desired.

As a reminder, half of your blocks are due to be turned in at the June 8, 2023 meeting. The second half of your blocks are due at the November 9, 2023 meeting. Make sure you put your name on them when you turn them in. All the blocks will be sorted and returned to you at the December 14th meeting. You will receive 9 blocks in different colors, to include one of your own.

NO! It is not too late to jump in on the fun. Contact Konnie Glaze with questions, concerns, or to sign up.

Community Service : Sherri Hayes

Hello Everyone!

A big thank you to everyone who came out to support the guild's community workshop! The food was excellent and the discussion about new techniques and ideas were fantastic. This month we cut out ~155 stockings and added 68 completed stockings, 20 bags, and 3 quilts to our inventory.

If you happen to have any Christmas or lining fabric lying around not being used, please consider donating it to the guild. We have a need and will definitely use anything you donate!!!

Look forward to seeing everyone at the next two workshops on Thursday, June 15th and again on June 29th.

Retreat, 2024 : Kaye Joachim

Our 2024 Retreat will be February 23-25 at Camp Timpooshee.

Registration packets will be coming out in August. The committee is busy working hard planning a wonderful retreat.

Sharing & Caring: Gail Menard

Here's the list of items the Food Pantry needs. As always, any donation is appreciated. Please bring the donations to the next Guild meeting and put them in the yellow shopping chart. If you have a monetary donation, you can give it to me at the meeting.

Remember to let me know what you're bringing before the meeting.

Facebook Virtual Show and Tell

Have you joined the FNQG Facebook group? Come join in and see what is going on with our members and their quilting: <https://www.facebook.com/groups/137493669595631>

Anne Smith shared a wonderful idea to have a virtual show and tell in our Facebook group. We live in such a beautiful area, and are surrounded by beauty that we often overlook. Or, perhaps you are travelling and will see a great photo opportunity.

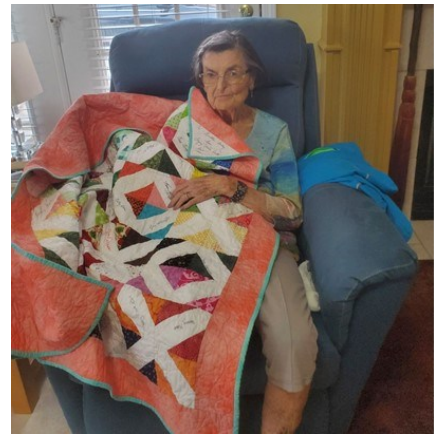

Simply have a friend or family member take a picture of you and one of your quilts outdoors. Ideas for picture taking: any beach or water scene, marinas, docks, parks, greenery (even your back yard), your garden or a nursery (flowers).

On June 23rd, there will be a show and tell post in the guild Facebook group where you can post your picture and tell us about your quilt and where the photo was taken. Join in the fun and learn more about our members. Please make all posts on the actual show and tell post that I make so the posts are easy for everyone to find.

Friendship Blocks:

Annette Dowdy shows off her friendship quilt. The blocks were made by various guild members, and Jeanie Donnelly pieced the top and quilted it.

Community Service

The Mid-Bay Rotary Club honored FNQG with a $500 donation to support our community service efforts. FNQG members Kerry Kastl, Sherri Hayes and Valerie Holmes received the check from Rotary Club members.

Show & Tell:

Mary Ann Sharp made this adorable valance for her sewing room made with vintage hankies. She didn't want to take it down, so she is sharing it virtually.

A Trip Down Memory Lane: Deb Chilcote, FNQG Historian

JUNE This is the 6th installment of a new series that focuses on what happened during the current month, and I will share tidbits of interesting information for that particular month over several years to give you a glimpse of what we did as a group. -- Deb Chilcote, FNQG Historian

1992 – A decision was made to have each member make an “appreciation” block with fabric of their choice, to be collected and given to the outgoing President as a gift for her service. This tradition has evolved through the years, depending on the desires of the President. Sometimes she would like a particular color or theme, sometimes she prefers a donation of money be made in her honor to a charity. Our first President Charlene Compton wanted sampler blocks, our 2nd President Bev Schroeder wanted flower applique blocks, and the next year, President Merrie DePierre wanted Friendship blocks. In 2018, outgoing President Kathy Everett chose to have a donation made to the Ronald McDonald House. No matter the design of the block, it was always announced in June as to what kind of block was requested.

-- Betty Davey volunteered to be in charge of buying & keeping fabrics on hand for charity projects that we make and donate.

1993 – The members of the Pensacola Quilt Guild were invited to our business meeting.

2004 – June’s Program was English Paper Piecing.

2005 – This month’s Program was “Keeping the Kinks Out While Quilting,” presented by a representative from the Bluewater Orthopedic & Sports Therapy Center.

2006 – We had our second Mystery Trip this year. Seven members participated.

2013 – This year’s Block of the Month Exchange was replaced by a Mystery Quilt, running from January through June. Barbara Fyffe headed this project called “Catercorner Mystery Quilt.” It was a popular way of making a quilt, and another one ran from September through December.

2015– We decided to have our future retreats and quilt shows in alternating years. By 2019, we had voted in March not to have a quilt show in the future because there are not enough volunteers. But June was a different story – Linda Weiss volunteered to chair the 2021 Quilt Show, and vowed that we could all pull it off. Then came the Covid-19 pandemic, and things were put on hold. Linda finally got her time to prove herself in 2023, and it was highly successful with lots of members who volunteered their time & efforts to make it very special for our guild, as well as everyone who attended.

2016 – Local shops introduce the Row by Row experience. This month’s program had Margie’s Sew Fun and A Quilter’s Place talk about how it would work.

2018 – The workshop was “Stack ‘n’ Whack” taught by Linda Weiss.

2021 – Barbi Ouellette and Anne Marie Wilkerson hosted a 5th Thursday charity workday in support of a campaign called “Hearts Apart,” making lap quilts for kids ages 5-11 whose parent is deployed in the military.

May pictures!

A big thanks to Liz Barnes for taking these

Linda Weiss presented a program with an overview of the history of incorporating antique linens and handkerchiefs in quilt making.

She showed many of the things she has made using this style of making quilts and clothing. The quilt she used as a backdrop was awarded 1st Place in the Handwork Category at our recent quilt show.

May was also the month for our semi-annual Potluck, and there was plenty of food!

Ruthie Reynoso blessed us with another one of her beautiful banners for our future retreats!

Cheri Perry made this T-shirt quilt, complete with a Bulldog quilting motif!

Penny Maus made this wedding quilt called "Old Fashioned Love Song" that has music-themed fabric throughout, and on the back.

Penny also made this Beatrix Potter baby quilt

Carol Stearns made this Unicorn quilt

Kaye Joachim made this modern penny stack wool wallhanging

Shirlee Carter made this in a Ricky Tims' class, conquering the art of sewing curves. It was also finished with a facing.

Sherri Kruschke made this quilt from Crown Royal bags

Finished projects from our April "Just in Case" workshop taught by Robin Easter --
Sherry Kruschke, Cheri Perry, LaLani James, and Kaye Joachim

Martha Rose finished her Mile-a-Minute quilt of houses, and also her Jack's Lunch from a previous workshop taught by Jeanie Donnelly

Janet Kinner made this zebra bag for Kerry Kastl, and also made this scrappy throw

Jackie Youngblood with her completely serged accessory bag, Jack's Lunch, and embroidery that Billie Maddox had started, and Jackie finished

Ruth Johnson made this blue panel quilt from a kit; she also made the Rippling Star Quilt

Debbie Daigle made this Blue Slice rug

Kathy Crews made this Blue Mountain Peak quilt

Diane Roberson made this Quilt Con project. Pattern is by Charles Cameron

Betty Davis rescued this quilt from a garage sale!
A tulip pattern with a heart quilting motif

Liz Barnes made this paper pieced Collie dog quilt for her son

Valerie Holmes made this sampler and blue lap quilt for her daughter

Sherri Hayes made a chenille pillow and a pouch bag

Eliza Dalton made a couple more crocheted Pokémon characters

Margaret Jacobs finished her Lightning Strike quilt top

Karen Garland finished her blue table runner

Jayne Pendergast finished two more in her crocheted Nativity Scene -- an angel and a sheep

May Pot Luck Recipes: from our guild members

These are three of the recipes from our May Pot Luck. There were also requests on our Facebook page for the Chicken Casserole, Banana Pudding, and Cheesecake Cupcakes recipes. If you made any of these, or know who did, have the master chef send the recipe to Peggy Murrell for inclusion in the next newsletter.

SPAGHETTI CASSEROLE: from the kitchen of Kathy Crews

Ingredients:

- 1 - 16 oz. package of spaghetti
- 2 - 24 oz. Jars of spaghetti sauce (you can make your own sauce)
- 1 - 8 oz. package of cream cheese softened
- 1 - 8 oz. carton of ricotta cheese
- 1 - 8 oz. carton of sour cream
- 3 cups of mozzarella cheese
- 2 lbs. of ground beef or Italian sausage (I used 1 lb. of each)
- 1 large yellow onion (chopped)
- 4-6 cloves of garlic (minced)
- 3 tsp of Italian seasoning
- 1 stick of butter (cut into 8 pieces)

Preheat oven to 350 degrees.

Cook spaghetti, add 1 jar of sauce and set aside Mix meat, garlic, onion, and 2 tsp. of the Italian seasoning in a large skillet. Brown and drain well, then add 1 jar of spaghetti sauce and set aside.

Mix all of the ricotta cheese, soft cream cheese, sour cream, and HALF of the mozzarella cheese together with 1 tsp. of the Italian seasoning.

In a large baking dish (mine is 12.5" X 10.5" X 2.5" and it filled it to the top) put 4 of the butter slices in the bottom close to the corners. Layer 1/2 of the spaghetti with sauce mixture over the butter. Spread the cheese mixture over the spaghetti.

Layer the remaining half of the spaghetti with sauce mixture. Put the remaining four slices of butter on top of the spaghetti. Pour the meat sauce over the top.

Bake the casserole for 45 minutes.

Remove from oven, cover with the remaining mozzarella cheese and bake for an additional 10 minutes until cheese is melted.

CORN SALAD: from the kitchen of Konnie Glaze

Ingredients:

- 4 cups corn kernels cut from the cob
- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- 1/2 red bell pepper chopped
- 1/2 red onion chopped
- 1/2 cup fresh cilantro chopped
- 5 green onions chopped
- 1 jalapeno pepper diced
- 1/2 avocado chopped
- 4 tablespoons lime juice
- 1/2 teaspoon smoked paprika
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 2 tablespoons sour cream
- 2 tablespoons mayonnaise
- 1/2 cup cotija cheese crumbled

1. Cut the corn off the cob, or use canned or frozen corn.
2. Preheat the oil on the stove at high heat. Stir in the corn and cook for about 3-5 minutes or until the corn starts to char. Add an extra few minutes to the cooking time if you are using frozen corn.
3. Transfer to a large bowl and cool for a few minutes.
4. After it has cooled, add the remaining ingredients. Stir well. Adjust the amount of the lime juice and salt and pepper to your taste.
5. Garnish with more cheese and cilantro.

Substitute feta cheese if you don't have cotija cheese.

Try it with tortilla chips or on chicken or steak.

KALE BRUSSEL SPROUTS SALAD: made by Debbie Daigle

Debbie got her recipe from <https://copykat.com/cracker-barrel-sprouts-and-kale-salad/>

More Recipes: from our guild members

These recipes are from our May Community Service workshop.

Swedish Pan Cake: from the kitchens of Konnie and

Dolores Glaze

Cake

2 c. flour
2 c. sugar
2 tsp. baking soda
2 eggs
1 tsp. vanilla
2 c. crushed pineapple (20 oz can and juice)
½ c. chopped pecans

Beat eggs a little in a mixing bowl. Add pineapple juice and then dry ingredients. Mix in the pineapple and nuts. Grease and flour a 9 x 13 pan. Bake at 350° for 40-45 minutes. This cake is good with or without frosting.

Frosting

2 c. powdered sugar
1 – 8 oz. cream cheese, softened
1 stick butter or margarine, softened.
1 tsp. vanilla

Mix all together and frost the cake. You can sprinkle nuts on top if desired. Keep refrigerated, and it tastes best the day after baking.

Chicken Tetrazzini: from the kitchens of Konnie Glaze and Vivien James

3-4 c. chopped, cooked chicken (rotisserie)
1 -16 oz package of thick spaghetti
3 chicken bouillon cubes
1 can cream of mushroom soup
1 can cream of celery soup
1 can cream of chicken soup
1 -8 oz sour cream
1 -6 oz jar of sliced mushrooms (Draining is optional. I drained, but if I make this again, I won't drain.)
½ c. shredded Parmesan cheese
1 tsp. pepper
½ tsp. salt
2 cups shredded cheddar cheese

Boil the spaghetti in water with chicken bouillon added for flavor. Drain and reserve ½ cup of the water, and return spaghetti and water to the pot.

In a bowl, stir together chicken, soups, sour cream, mushrooms, parmesan, salt and pepper. Add this to the pot with spaghetti and toss well.

Spoon mixture into a greased 9 x 13 pan. Sprinkle the cheddar on top. Bake covered at 350° for 30 minutes. Uncover and bake 5-10 minutes more until the cheese is melted.

We had a chat at lunch today and decided this dish would be great with some extras added: green chilis, red pepper flakes, cayenne pepper, broccoli, or chick peas. Give something a try!
