March Program

First Quilt-Last Quilt

We have such a wide range of experience and talent in our Guild and this will be an amazing and inspirational Show & Tell. If you have the first quilt you ever made, we would love to see it, along with the last quilt you worked on. This will be conducted prior to our regular Show & Tell.

March Workshop

March workshop is Kerry Kastl's tote bag on March 26th. This bag is a huge favorite!

Retreat News

The 2020 reTREAT is over. I hope everyone had a good time. Thank you to all the FNQG members who help make this such a success. I loved chairing this event and had the best team helping me. I want to publicly thank Sandra, Konnie, Deb, Deborah, Barbi, Theresa, Polly, Jo, Marisol, Pat, Diane, Pam, and Cathy. Now on to the 2021 Quilt Show.

Sincerely,
Kaye Joachim

March Note from the President

The retreat is behind us and ahead is our 2021 quilt show. A huge round of applause is in order for Kaye Joachim and her committee for our 2020 re-TREAT being such a success! If you have ideas about the 2021 quilt show be sure to talk with Linda Weiss.

Our Program for this month is First Quilt, Last Quilt. Bring the first quilt you made and the last quilt you worked on.

Remember to mark your calendars for sit and sew, Thursday 3/5 and Kerry's quick and easy tote workshop, Thursday 3/26.

National Quilt Day is observed Saturday, March 21. Come to the church and enjoy a day of quilting and fellowship. And food! Perhaps we will organize another potluck lunch. Hannah will have the Paper Doll pattern many of you want to make either for yourselves or for our Saturday in the Park fundraiser next month. We are not limited to that pattern, though. Join us and bring whatever project you would like to work on.

I want to again thank the board and all of our coordinators for organizing our meetings and functions.

If you have any ideas for ways to improve our meetings or events please let me know. I also welcome any concerns or criticism. Anything that might strengthen our guild is always welcome.

Pam

February's strips were won by Polly Shields.
March's strip club will be yellow.

Friendship Blocks –
Pam won the blocks this month. The color will be green next month.
Turn blocks in to Jeanie.
If you signed out some patchwork blocks, please return them in the general meeting.

Round Robin
The Second Round of the Round Robin is underway. Second round is due at the April General Meeting 4/9/2020.
