

OBVERSE

Eagle—Symbol of strength and power but always turned to the olive branch as preferring peace; Clutching our national symbol—‘From many, One’

Olive Branch—America seeks peace; Thirteen leaves and Thirteen olives

White—Signifies Purity and Innocence

Red—Signifies Hardiness and Valor

Each Star/Stripes—Original thirteen colonies; The glory of thirteen original states combining as one nation in history's first attempt at self-government by its people

Thirteen Arrows—Prepared to defend Liberty

Escutcheon—Represents valor and virtue protecting the eagle with thirteen bars representing America's original thirteen states