

I took my family to the park yesterday. First, we played in the creek. Cool! We found two glittery painted rocks. That is when we got out of the water and started looking for more painted rocks. Unfortunately, we did not find any more rocks. Then the kids started saying that they were hungry, so we started walking back to the van. Finally, we get in the van, buckle up, and head home for dinner.

Verbs- red

Noun- magenta

Adjective- yellow

Adverb- orange

Pronoun- green

Interjection- cyan

Conjunction- grey

Preposition- blue