

Lesso:47

Page:167

Agreement:Inverted Sentences

- 1.Is the doctor attending the sessions?
- 2.Under the tree lurks the hungry cats. Cats (the noun, which is plural); the verb must be plural (lurk). For example, "The hungry cats lurk under the tree" You can rearrange these sentences to better understand them..
- 3.Are electric vehicles becoming more popular.
- 4.There goes Oko's sisters.
- 5.Does he live in the mountains.
- 6.Inside that house was the object of my affections.
- 7.Was Jamal helping with the pamphlets?
- 8.Beside the fence grow black raspberries.
- 9.Except for Tamiko, have all the others paid the fee?
- 10.Here comes one of the prettiest floats in the parade.
- 11.Was the basket full of apples?
- 12.There is only fifty tickets left. What is the Subject here? Is it singular or plural? If it is singular, it needs a singular verb. If plural, it needs a plural verb.
- 13.Does that dish contain peanuts?
- 14.On top of the car were perched three pigeons.
- 15.Were the three of them excused for the day?
- 16.In these humble surroundings was born our sixteenth president.
- 17.For the boat's deck has Benny used treated boards?
- 18.There sits his forgotten papers.
- 19.Here comes your favorite part.
- 20.Do the Joneses like golf?

Exercise 2:

- 1.Around the corner speeds the little terrier.
- 2.There walks a proud woman.
- 3.Is the teachers glad for the holiday break? Subject: Teachers (plural). What's the verb?
- 4.Into the yard flies the hungry birds in search of a meal. Subject: Birds (plural) What's the verb?
- 5.Here is three copies of today's Times. Subject: Copies (plural) What's the verb? Identify the subject first then, determine the verb.
- 6.Does Enrico have enough money for lunch?
- 7.Above the staircases was the secret passageway.
- 8.There is the misplaced textbook.
- 9.Has any other activities generated this much enthusiasm? Subject: activities (plural) What's the verb?
- 10.Were all of them in the car?
- 11.Near the pond grows a weeping willow.
- 12.There goes the dog in search of her missing puppy.
- 13.Was the views spectacular from the bridge? Subject: views (plural) What's the verb?
- 14.On the fence post hangs several pieces of twine.
- 15.Here comes the best musicians in the world. Subject: musicians (plural) what's the verb?
- 16.Do the players provide their own shoes?
- 17.Around the city speeds the delivery truck.
- 18.There are many sources for the information you need.