...paving the way to achievement!

COVID-19: The New Normal

In recent months, the world was met with an antagonist that changed the way in which we conducted our lives and carried out our day to day activities. What was once our norm was abruptly disrupted, challenging us to rethink our practices as we embraced our new norm. The term, "social distancing" prevented us from gathering in common places such as the workplace and school, but thanks to modern technology, it did not prevent YOURpath's students from forging ahead with their academic and career goals.

Students were able to continue doing what they had already been doing, which was working from the comfort of their own home while studying for their GED and HiSET exam online. YOURpath for Adult Learners was able to keep (at least) part of our students' reality as their norm. We were also able to

WELCOME RETURNING STUDENTS

Oftentimes, we take actions to create the outcomes that we desire. Not too often, do we take into account that life tends to unfold with many unexpected circumstances. Nevertheless, the key to achieving our personal goals is to remain steadfast and continue to persevere. We, at YOURpath, are excited to welcome back our returning students, and we encourage them to stay the course. The finish line is always closer than we can imagine.

YOURpath for Adult Learners would like to take the opportunity to welcome our three new ABE Tutors:

Mr. Allison, Mr. Ong and Mr. Pablo.

- ✓ Mr. Allison will be tutoring our students in Math and Science. He has a background in Science and teaches high school students.
- ✓ Mr. Ong will be tutoring our students in Math and Science. He has a background in Biomedical Sciences and experience tutoring students for standardized testing (SAT, ACT and AP exams).
- ✓ Mr. Pablo will be tutoring our students in all subject matters as he has a strong background in all subject areas, scoring nearly perfect scores on his ACT in all subjects. He has a background in Neuroscience.

We, at YOURpath, are excited to have our new ABE tutors aboard, and look forward to their contributions to our program.

Continue p.1

Identify ways in which we could broaden our students' experiences online by offering them online courses through our google classrooms. Today, our students are able to complete their reinforcement work through google classrooms. Here, students are able to upload their assignments and get instructional feedback. Students can apply their feedback to make the necessary corrections so that they are able to resubmit their assignments for further instructional feedback and/or a satisfactory grade (80% or better). These courses enable students to gain a stronger subject/content knowledge base as they prepare for official testing in a given subject area. The uniqueness that YOURpath for Adult Learners has discovered about google classroom is that instructors are able to create text-sets per each subject area that allow students to delve deeper into each lesson in order to gain a better understanding of the concepts that are being taught. So, while our old world has been shaken by an unwelcome intruder, our new norm has permitted us to once again explore beyond our self-imposed limitations and restricted realities.

What's New at YOURpath?

Law and Liberty by E.J. Cutler

O Liberty, thou child of Law,
 God's seal is on thy brow!
 O Law, her Mother first and last,
 God's very self art thou!
 Two flowers alike, yet not alike,
 On the same stem that grow,

Two friends who cannot live apart,
 Yet seem each other's foe.
 One, the smooth river's mirrored flow
 Which decks the world with green;
 And one, the bank of sturdy rock
 Which hems the river in.
 O Daughter of the timeless Past,
 O Hope the Prophets saw,
 God give us Law in Liberty
 And Liberty in Law!

It was late July
 The day was charcoal gray
 While the drizzle played
 With the green moist grass
 Bewildered raindrops fell
 Ringing to the ground
 She quietly sat
 On the garden bench
 Not wishing to go inside
 For within the home
 Hungry saddened memories
 Stalked the halls
 Her dreary mind
 Would not allow her
 To pass unnoticed
 The only joy
 Were the caged birds
 Singing to be fed
 It was late July
 The sun had departed
 Her damp wet clothes
 Made her tremble
 Keeping hope alive
 She kept repeating
 ...There's always August
