Herédias Reserva Especial

The 2020 Branco Reserva Especial Herédias (Terroir d'Origem) is a blend of 40% Viosinho, 40% Rabigato and 20% Gouveio, sourced from centenarian vines and aged for just one month in new French oak. It comes in at 13.7% alcohol. A little flinty, but reasonably concentrated and energetic, this has freshness to go with the seemingly unctuous texture that simply coats the palate. This serious and tightly wound white should age well, probably better than indicated.
