Position Announcement Columbus, MT

Columbus Rural Fire District #3 (CRFD) is accepting applications for the immediate hiring of an Engine Boss/Fuel Mitigation Supervisor/Firefighter/EMT.

Seasonal/Full time Position

This position will work within the chain of command established within the organization. Applicants must possess strong communication, leadership, and organizational skills, as well as proven integrity in working with volunteer organizations and the community. Successful candidates must realize that they will be working to provide support to a predominately volunteer organization and in many cases may be working under Volunteer officers. This position will over see CRFD's wildland/fuels programs and be utilized in the 911 system. There will be travel involved within these positions during wildland fire deployments that can extend up to 21+ days away from home. This position will also fall into the 911 response system.

Columbus Fire Rescue (collectively the Columbus Rural Fire District #3 and the City of Columbus Fire Department), located in Stillwater County in south central Montana, is a large, geographically diverse rural fire district. CRFD serves a municipal community of approximately 2,000 residents as well as a rural area of approximately 750 square miles for fire and 850 square miles for EMS. CRFD serves a total population of 6,500 residents with 40 volunteers and 7 career staff. CRFD provides structural and wildland fire protection, EMS, HAZMAT, and rescue within its jurisdiction.

The starting salary range for this position is $18.63 to $19.63 per hour, DOE, with a pay increase after successfully completing a 12-month probation period and is seasonal/full time. This position includes excellent benefits including health insurance (100% coverage for employee and family), accidental death and disability insurance, PERS retirement system, and paid vacation. The shift rotation will be 4 10-hour days with seasonal rotations shared with 1 other person.

The application deadline is February 4, 2022 at 5:00 PM. Anticipated start date would be April 1, 2022.
