

Scenario #2: Air Crash Scenario

A big jet with 224 passengers and crew of 12 was flying from Los Angeles to Oakland. A small jet carrying six people and crew of three was also flying to Oakland. The jets collided over the City of SLUDMAR.

The small jet crashed immediately east of Wilton Place and East First Avenue. There are no survivors from the small jet but there are numerous injuries on the ground as well as structure fires.

The big jet sustained significant damage and declared an in-flight emergency. The collision caused one engine of the big jet to fall off and land in a field at the south end of President's Canyon at the County boarder with SLUDMAR. A small brushfire erupted. The big jet crashed within minutes of its radio transmission on East Sixth Avenue between "F" Street and "H" Street.

The debris field from the big jet extended west and north from East Sixth Street and "F" Street. There are no survivors from the big jet, but numerous people are injured on the ground and there are structure fires.
