

Scenario #1: Explosion at Fusse Stadium at a Collegiate Final Football Game

Without warning, there was an explosion inside the Buford T. Fusse Stadium at SLUDMAR State University. The explosion occurred during the fourth quarter of an Saturday evening football game between the SLUDMAR University team and its rival for the division title. The stadium was filled with fans.

A possible chemical agent is suspected as people are choking, coughing, and losing consciousness. Several people are reportedly injured or dead. It is unknown if suspects are inside the stadium. People are running for the exits in panic.

NOTES: Kickoff for the football game was at 6:30 p.m. The explosion took place at 9:00 p.m. Your group's news conference should start at 11 p.m. to coincide with the local television news program. Expect that your event will be taken LIVE on all local, regional and national news networks.
