

Core Dancer Program

2020-2021 Season

Classes begin on September 14, 2020

Dance education beginning in early childhood and continuing throughout life benefits the body, mind and spirit.

Class Styles

Ballet

Positions, technique, musicality, strength and flexibility will be explored through exercises to develop dancers poise, grace and confidence. Ballet is the foundation for all forms of dance and is highly recommended for all dancers no matter what their favorite style is.

Junior Ballet (9-12) Mon 5:30 - 6:30 pm

Teen Ballet (13 & up) Mon 6:30-7:30 pm & Wed 6:00 -7:00 pm
(Must take both days)

Pre-Pointe (13 & up) Monday 7:30-8:00 pm (must take Teen ballet)

Jazz

Style and technique are emphasized in our Jazz curriculum. Classes work on turns, leaps, flexibility, strength and style while learning upbeat choreography to a variety of music styles. Jazz is a wonderful confidence building class for beginner or advanced dancers and is often used in musical theater dance and dance teams.

Junior & Teen Jazz (9 & up) Wednesday 7:00-7:45 pm

Use dancers age as of September 30

Hip Hop

Learn trendy dance steps while dancing to trendy music. Perfect for you dancer who can't sit still. Strengthening and conditioning help build a solid foundation for hip hop movement.

Junior Hip Hop (9-12) Tuesday 4:30-5:00 pm

Tap

Tap teaches the most important quality of a dancer, musicality and rhythm. Tap dance helps to increase musicality, agility, strength, and confidence all while making rhythms with your feet. Tap is highly recommended to all dancers.

6 Week Workshop ONLY Wednesdays 7:45-8:15 pm

Contemporary

This class is based in modern dance techniques with a bit of inspiration from jazz and ballet. This style blends expression with technique and artistry.
