Kewaunee County Sheriff Matt Joski Endorses Cravillion for Senate

"I support Nic and his efforts to serve as our next 1st District State Senator" – Sheriff Joski

(NEW FRANKEN) ...Nic Cravillion, candidate for the Wisconsin First Senate District, announced today that Kewaunee County Sheriff Matt Joski has endorsed his campaign for State Senate.

In a written statement in support of Cravillion, Sheriff Joski wrote the following:

"Nic brings with him a great deal of experience and knowledge as a staff member to Senator André Jacque. His understanding of the many challenges to both our District and our state, as well as his strong moral character establishes Nic as someone who can bring differing perspectives together for lasting solutions."

"Having dedicated himself to the military service of our country early in his life, Nic has demonstrated that he does in fact live by the philosophy "Service Above Self," and his pursuit of continued service to our state and community speaks volumes about his commitment."

"Our future as a state requires strong, thoughtful leadership based on a principle of shared values and goals, with a foundation of what we have in common, rather than how we are different. Our state motto "Forward" brings forth a powerful message to all of us...I believe that Nic Cravillion possesses the character strengths to bring that motto to life and re-establish it as a call to action for the betterment of our state. I support Nic and his efforts to serve as our next 1st District State Senator."

Sheriff Joski has served the citizens of Kewaunee County as sheriff for over 20 years, and has served as a law enforcement officer for more than 30 years.
